LICKING CO. BOYS HELD AS SPIES

Granville Youths, Traveling in Mexico, in Custody a Month

ARE ENROUTE TO NEWARK

Huerta Indicates He is Still in Fighting Mood—Is Increasing Federal Army—Train Wrecked and Road Destroyed.

Sightseeing in Mexico proved decidedly hazardous to two Granville boys, Donald McCollum, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McCollum, and Ray Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, when they were taken into custody by the Mexican officials and held as spies for a month. On Thursday the nearly frantic parents of the boys received their first word from them in nearly six weeks.

The young men, who are both 18 years of age, started the first of last September for a trip through the United States. Their plan was to visit a city, secure a position and spend several weeks there and then proceed to another city, thus they did not merely "do" a town in the usual way of sightseers, but were able to familiarize themselves with all things of interest. They were in the state of Washington for several weeks and then went to California. Early in the month of December they left San Diego for Los Angeles and from there by the way of steamers went down into Mexico.

They visited Mexicali, in lower California, and were in the city but a short time when they were taken in custody. They were kept under the strictest surveillance and were permitted to hold intercourse with no one. The charge against them was that of spies and during the unrest of the country it is an extremely serious one. Each day, in the care of two guards they were permitted to leave the prison for a few hours, but during that time they were not allowed to speak to any one, and at no time were they permitted to write home.

Falling to uphold the charge against the young men, they were given their freedom, with the proviso that they leave the country.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. McCollum both received short letters from their sons on Thursday morning, the first for six weeks, the letters having been written in Mexicali, at the earliest opportunity. Both boys gave their parents assurance that they were well and that any cause for worry was past.

Friday morning a friend of the McCollum boy received word that the young men had reached Arizona and were making their way towards home.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Juarez, Mex., Feb. 6.—Seven American railroad men are believed to be prisoners; the great Cumber railroad tunnel through the continental divide is in ruins, and the Mexican Northwestern passenger train which left here Wednesday morning is a charred wreck at the mouth of the tunnel, as the result of the depredations of members of the Maximo Castillo gang of bandits. This information amplifying reports last night from Chihuahua, was received here today at the headquarters of the railroad. It corrects last night's statement that it was the Drake tunnel, a smaller bore south of Cumber that was destroyed.

General Francisco Villa, commander of the rebel forces now at Chihuahua was enraged at the news and in a telegram which passed through here today instructed General Felipe Macias, operating in the Casas Grandes district to shoot every man who could not satisfactorily account for his presence there.

The bandits are believed to be operating in two forces of about thirty men each.

HEN'S NOT LUCKED YET.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mexico City, Feb. 6.—Provisional President Huerta today telegraphed to the Spanish-American union here replying to its request that he bring about an armistice in Mexico in order to arrange a compromise with the revolutionists by the statement that he is increasing the federal army with the object of pushing forward his campaign against the rebels.

General Huerta at the same time invited the newspapers of Madrid to send correspondents to Mexico City to observe the situation. The (Continued on Page 14, Col. 4.)

Finds Plea for Treatment of Cancer in Early Stages in Death of Cong. Bremner

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6.—Secretary Lane of the department of the interior sees in the death of Representative R. C. Bremner of New Jersey a plea for the treatment of cancer in its early stages and an increased supply of radium as an aid in the fight against the disease. Mr. Bremner, whose death occurred in Baltimore yesterday, had been undergoing the radium treatment for cancer.

An official statement today commenting on the death of Representative Bremner, Secretary Lane, who has strongly advocated legislation for the conservation of the nation's radium, paid tribute to the remarkable fortitude and optimism of Mr. Bremner as shown during his illness and regretted that efforts to save his life were unsuccessful.

"The surgeons in charge of the Baltimore hospital," said the secretary, "were reluctant to use the radium treatment in Mr. Bremner's case because they said the one gram of radium they could bring together in the United States for use in his case would be entirely inadequate for attacking with any hope of success the giant cancerous growth that was sapping the life of the young member of congress."

"But," continued Secretary Lane, "Mr. Bremner was anxious that the experiment be tried, so that even a failure might teach lessons that would help the common cause. His death is another of the thousands of pathetic appeals for treatment of cancer in its early stages, and for larger supplies of radium to help the surgeons in all parts of the country in the fight against this dreaded disease."

terday it was parted long and smoothed back neatly.

Schmidt ate a hearty supper after his return to the Tombs and immediately afterwards he went to bed and fell into a sound sleep. It was when he was awakened by his counsel, Alphonso C. Keeble, that he made the announcement that he wanted no appeal.

"I am satisfied with the verdict," said Schmidt. "I would rather die today than tomorrow. I notify you that I do not wish you to appear further in my behalf, and that I will not in any way assist you if you try to take the case to a higher court. I would do nothing to prevent the fate that I know awaits me."

The murder of Ann Ammiller was one of the most horrible in the crime history of the city. Schmidt was a priest attached to St. Joseph's church when he took the girl to a flat he had fitted up. He confessed that on the morning of September 2 last, he went to the flat about midnight and while she slept, cut her throat and then dismembered the body, cutting it into nine parts. These he disposed of by throwing them into the Hudson river. The torso was found on the Jersey shore and three pieces have not been found. The head is still missing.

OIL INSPECTION IS UPHOLD BY COURTS DECISION

Columbus, Feb. 6.—In a decision handed down today by Judge Evans, of the Franklin county court, the validity of the state oil inspection act attacked by Charles J. Castle, an oil dealer of Cleveland, in a suit against State Oil Inspector William F. Mason, is upheld.

ANDERSON NAMES 34 ASSESSORS

Names Selected from List of Eligibles from Columbus

NO GRADES ANNOUNCED

Sixty-Five Eligibles Certified to by State Commission Out of 92 Who Took Test.

Out of a list of sixty-five eligibles, ten in Newark and fifty in outlying districts, just submitted by the state civil service commission, District Tax Assessor W. E. Anderson has selected thirty-four appointees for the position of assessors in the various sub-assessment districts.

There are twenty-nine sub-assessment districts in the county and of this number there is one assessor to each, except Newark city, which comprises the twenty-ninth sub-assessment district and has six appointees. The appointments are as follows:

- No. 1. Bennington township, Geo. N. McLain.
- No. 2. Bowling Green township, Churchill L. Stevens.
- No. 3. Bennington township, J. Cameron Stinson.
- No. 4. Eden township, Samuel J. Hillary.
- No. 5. Eden township, George W. Helmick.
- No. 6. Fallbury township, George A. Meek.
- No. 7. Franklin township, David Allen Benner.
- No. 8. Granville township, Albert P. Nichol.
- No. 9. Granville village, Frank Welch.
- No. 10. Hanover township, Daniel W. Weaver.
- No. 11. Harrison township, William E. Mason.
- No. 12. Hartford township, David L. Perry.
- No. 13. Hopewell township, F. Morgan Hursey.
- No. 14. Jersey township, Frank P. Tharp.
- No. 15. Liberty township, William A. Whissen.
- No. 16. Licking township, William M. Osborne.
- No. 17. Lima township, Charles Newell Alward.
- No. 18. McKean township, George E. Smith.
- No. 19. Madison township, Clement V. Jeffers.
- No. 20. Mary Ann township, Frank B. Dudgeon.
- No. 21. Monroe township, Mervin B. Kasson.
- No. 22. Newark township, John A. McMillen.
- No. 23. Newton township, Elzy F. Dush.
- No. 24. Perry township, John Somerville.
- No. 25. St. Albans township, A. D. Burnside.
- No. 26. Union township, Ed J. Fristoe.
- No. 27. Washington township, William Creed Warthen.
- No. 28. Utica village, Roelof Brinkerhoff.
- No. 29. Newark city: Charles W. Gunion, E. S. Randolph, W. A. Fleming, E. T. Johnson, J. B. Irish and William M. Glenn.

District Assessor Anderson declines to make public the grades of applicants who took the examination, but says grades may be obtained by applicants by writing the state civil service commission direct.

Licking county was fortunate in having no township where there was not one applicant who received a passing grade. Many other counties have experienced such a situation, in which case the district assessor must make a provisional appointment of a deputy assessor.

The sixty-five eligibles were those who obtained the highest passing grades out of the list of ninety-two who finished the state civil service examination here. There were ninety-six who started to take the examination but four retired after the examinations started.

The figure in front of each name indicates the number of that sub-assessment district.

Cleveland, Feb. 6.—Fireman John Barrett was injured and several other firemen were overcome by smoke when fire damaged the six-story building of the John Amfield Clark company, 31 Clair avenue, this morning. The damage was $3,000.

Niece of Columbus Man, Missing Since Last Monday, Is Found in Chicago

Florence Lawlor, a Brooklyn High school girl, who left home because of a petty quarrel with her parents, was located Thursday in the Y. W. C. A. at Chicago, after relatives had instituted a general search over the entire country.

A worker in the association found the girl and seeing that she was alone, took her to the association building.

She gave them the name of her uncle, Benson R. Hedges of Columbus, and they wired him, that the girl was safe. Later she communicated with her father by telephone.

Mr. Hedges asked that the girl be detained until he could reach Chicago. He left Thursday night and will accompany the girl part way home. She declared that she would be glad to return to her parents.

ADVOCATE PICTURES WILL AFFORD READERS PROFITABLE PASTIME

Booklovers' Contest Offers Rare Opportunity to Those who Think—Neither Luck Nor Learning Likely to Land—First Picture to Appear in Advocate of February 10th.

The first picture in the Advocate's great $3,000 Booklovers' Contest will appear in this newspaper next Tuesday, February 10. From that time on one will be published six days a week until 70 have appeared.

Readers of this paper will have the pleasure of naming the books these pictures will represent and at the close of the contest 100 or more prizes worth $3,000 or more will be awarded to the winners.

Don't get the idea that luck will win.

Neither imagine that it is no use in anyone trying to win a big Booklovers' Contest prize award who is not educated up to the top notch.

People who think—really think—are not numbered wholly among the favored few with university education. Those who are pretty certain to be at the top of the contest will not all be familiar with everything in bookdom.

Sharp eyes; careful thinking; shrewd judgment—these three will count for more, in the long run of seventy pictures, than any other mental attributes.

As the contest progresses, every reader will have this fact brought home to him. For each picture will show that only one book really fits that picture's meaning. And it will be easy to tell what book that is, and who wrote it, if you go by the Finding List or any good catalogue of any library.

Perhaps you may not win the first prize, despite your best efforts. But the second prize is a big one. So is the third—and the twentieth, and all the others.

Considering that you do not have to spend a cent for entry fees, nor get tangled up with any red tape or bothersome details, to compete—and to stand a fine chance to win—this Booklovers' Contest of The Advocate certainly merits the name of a profitable pastime.

No such prize list was ever offered by a Newark newspaper.

Best of all, there are no conditions attached to the winning of any prize which cannot be met by any reader. Young or old, rich or poor, brilliant or school or graduates of the University of Hard Knocks—all alike start and finish on absolutely equal terms.

It is worth waiting for the start of this Booklovers' Contest. The rules were printed in yesterday's issue, and will be reprinted from time to time during the life of the contest. Read them again.

ZERO WEATHER IS PROMISED FOR NEWARK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., Feb. 6.—A special weather bulletin issued by the local bureau this morning predicts a drop in temperature of 30 degrees within the next 36 hours. Zero weather is reported in the western states.

STORMS IN SOUTH.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6.—A severe cold wave overpowered the Central Southern states today and was pushing its way eastward with indications that it would reach northwestern Florida and the easternmost of the southern states Saturday. The extreme cold came from Montana, moving south-eastward. It was facilitated by an extensive low pressure area over the southern Rocky Mountain region which moved northeastward until it became central this morning over the lower Ohio Valley.

Thunderstorms were reported in the south. The Ohio Valley depression will move northeastward today and tomorrow. A severe heavy snow in the lake region and northern New England.

COMING FROM WEST.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Spokane, Wash., Feb. 6.—Eastern Washington, eastern Oregon, northern Idaho, and all of Montana today are in the grip of the first severe weather of the winter. Temperatures in Washington, east of the Cascades, were reported from five to ten degrees below zero with the prospect of a further drop, while from northern and eastern Montana towns came reports of temperatures below zero.

Hayre and Silver lake each reported below zero. Billings reported 33 below with the mercury slowly dropping. The freeze was felt by the railroads in Montana, transcontinental trains running from three to four hours late.

Northern Idaho experienced zero weather for the first time this winter. Genesee reported 35 below zero.

ZERO IN KANSAS.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Kansas City, Feb. 6.—The coldest weather of the winter struck Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Northern Texas today. A biting wind with sleet came with the cold. Early in the day the temperature reached zero in many parts of Kansas and western Missouri and still was falling. Ten degrees below zero was registered in northwestern Kansas.

At Hutchinson mail carriers collecting mail from boxes carried torches to thaw out the frozen locks.

COWAN BILL IN DOUBT

Governor Sends Special
Message Relating to Fire
Insurance Rates—Would Increase Superintendent's Power.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Feb. 6.—With the House marking time, the Senate making slow progress in disposing of remaining bills, and the prospect of an alignment of Republicans and Democrats against the Cowan appropriation bill, in the House, indications at noon were that adjournment of the special session of the legislature tonight was doubtful. Consideration of the Mills bill also added to the possibilities of a stormy and prolonged session of the House.

Republicans today did not conceal the fact that they are opposed to the Cowan appropriation bill as it was reported yesterday, and a number of the Democrats, who have been supporting the administration on other measures expressed dissatisfaction and indicated that they would support the Republicans in their fight on the bill. The bill, in its present form, is too indefinite, it was argued.

Those opposing the present form of the appropriation bill say that other bills carrying appropriations have carried itemized statements showing just what the money was to be used for in each department while the Cowan bill merely shows the amount allowed each department.

Some predicted that the appropriation bill probably would be referred back to the committee with instructions "to make it clear" and report it out when the legislature returns to finish up business in a week or ten days hence.

The Mills bill, some of the Democrats said, might meet death in the House this afternoon. An effort was being made to have it indefinitely postponed.

Fate of the Cuthery banking bill which would make state banks conform to the federal reserve system was made uncertain today when the lower house of the legislature refused to concur in the Senate amendment which would not allow state banks to act as executors or trustees of estates. The bill now must go to a conference committee.

The bill recommended in a special message by Governor Cox regarding fire insurance companies was introduced in the house by representative Feilinger of Cuyahoga county. The bill gives the superintendent of insurance power to revoke the license of an insurance company, which in his judgment does not meet the requirements of the law.

The House killed the Jung bill relating to prosecutions in certain cases of delinquencies.

Governor Cox's special message recommending regulation of fire insurance companies doing business within the state was sent to both houses this morning. Bills will be introduced in both houses to carry out the governor's recommendations. It is expected. The regulatory measure was drawn by state insurance commissioner Ed. H. Moore, attorney General Hogan and representatives of mutual fire insurance companies. The measure says:

"One of the crying protective needs of our state is the admission of mutual fire insurance companies under such safeguards as will adequately protect the insured, and at the same time invite the entrance of the best and safest of these mutuals."

"The present law neither furnishes a satisfactory nor sufficient standards of solvency for such mutual companies nor do our present statutes give to the superintendent of insurance sufficient power to compel restoration of an impairment of their capital before they become wholly insolvent."

By a vote of 53 to 32, the house last before the noon recess voted to reconsider the Jung bill which was defeated yesterday. The bill provides for a commission of members to be appointed by the governor to make an investigation of the financial conditions of the mutuals and report to the regular session of the legislature in 1915. The preamble of the bill says that the mutuals are handicapped for want of the best of laws. (Continued on Page 14, Col. 2.)

Peculiar After Effects of Grip This Year

Leaves Kidneys in Weakened Condition

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50cts and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.

BEAUTY DOCTOR DREW $25 FINE; HE LEAVES TOWN

H. G. Gains, who claims to be a beauty doctor, giving his residence as Canton and operating in Newark, was arraigned before Mayor Bigbee Friday morning and charged with failing to pay board bills owed to Mrs. Raisin, residing in the North End, and Mrs. Conklin, of East Newark. Gains put up a strong plea and entered into argument of much length with practically every body in the room and had to be silenced by Police Chief Sheridan. On former occasions he had been charged with obtaining keys after staying several days at houses. Chief Sheridan on a former occasion took from him a key that he obtained by the methods before mentioned. After he concluded his plea the mayor fined him $25 and costs but suspended both on condition that he get out of town immediately.

MILLIONS FOR ROADS.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Under a special rule the House will work tonight on the Shackleford good roads bill to appropriate $25,000,000 for improvement of highways used by rural mail carriers.

Better Health Contest Will Close Tonight; Judges Will Announce Awards Saturday

With bundles of answers coming in for the contest editor in every mail, there is every indication that there is not going to be any "walk-away" for anybody in The Advocate's Better-Health contest, when it closes at 5 o'clock this afternoon, ready for the judges to begin work. Great interest has been manifested in this effort to arouse Newark and Linden citizens to their sanitary needs. It is certain this interest means a splendid reward for the best answers.

Persons who have submitted suggestions to the contest editor will learn in Saturday's edition of The Advocate, just who are the prize-winners. Then will be seen how easy it was to win $25, $15 or $10 in gold.

All has been said and done and it's practically all over but the shouting.

Manuscripts with ten suggestions not in the hands of the contest editor by 5 o'clock this afternoon will be considered out of the contest.

The judges will start work sometime Saturday, in time to have their report ready for the Saturday edition of The Advocate.

Persons whose names are announced as prize-winners may call at The Advocate business office Monday, and when proper identification is established the money will be turned over to them.

The committee of judges who will go to work on the suggestions Saturday consists of Superintendent William Hawkins of the public schools; Hon. Robbins Hunter, judge of probate court, and Dr. H. H. Postle, physician and surgeon. Owing to illness of Dr. W. S. Turner, Dr. Postle agreed to serve in his stead.

Theaters

"The Thief."

Janet Allyn, who plays the leading role in "The Thief," Henri Bernstein's great play which appears at the Auditorium on Saturday matinee and night has the distinction of being one of the few women who has received the thanks of a city through the mayor of the place.

While playing in Arkadelphia, Ark., recently Miss Allyn had an opportunity to prove herself a heroine. It was during the second act of the play which was being presented to a large audience. During the action of the play, some boys in the alley set fire to a barrel of trash and ran into the lobby of the theater yelling fire. The audience rose en masse and started for the exits.

Miss Allyn grasped the situation at a glance and went on with her lines and in a few moments quelled a panic that would undoubtedly result in a great loss of life had it not been for her presence of mind. As soon as the audience realized what had been done to quell the panic, a storm of applause arose and it was several minutes before Miss Allyn could go on with the play. The morning following the occurrence, Mayor W. A. Jackson called on Miss Allyn at her hotel and thanked her in behalf of the city for her part in saving many of the people of the town from serious injury and possibly death. In answering Mayor Jackson, Miss Allyn said "Ah, it was nothing—any level-headed person would have done the same thing under the circumstances. I saw that something had to be done and done quickly or a terrible catastrophe would have happened."

"The House of Bondage," which appears at the Auditorium for three days, starting Sunday matinee, at 2:30 is the only authorized version from the book of that name by Reginald Wright Kauffman, and has no bearing whatsoever on the play of that name. The Photo Drama Motion Picture Co., has pictured over two hundred scenes, faithfully portraying the heart-throb story of poor Mary Denbigh, the high-school girl who is enticed from her home. This production sounds the greatest warning to young girls ever known in history. Lottie Pickford, who plays the part of the thoughtless young girl, Mary Denbigh gives the greatest performance of her career in this part. She is supported by a cast of over a hundred, each and every character exact types of the story by Reginald Wright Kauffman. Three performances will be given daily—2, 7 and 8:30 p. m., at popular prices. Every man, woman and child should see this wonderful production. All objectionable scenes in the book have been eliminated.

Orpheum.
Since George Kleine made his enormous success of the Cines photo drama "Quo Vadis," a host of cheap imitators have entered the field of competition. However, as the Kleine production includes eight wonderful reels and is only produced in the high class theaters of the country and has never been leased for state rights or ordinary moving picture houses, the general public has been quick to discriminate between the big and the little "Quo Vadis." In the big cities of the East, Mr. Kleine's production was taken up by fashionable society and theater parties of the "four hundred" were a frequent occurrence at the Astor Theater in New York. The George Kleine production of "Quo Vadis" will be the attraction at the Orpheum Theater on Feb. 15th, 1914, for one day with matinees daily. The entertainment covers two hours and fifteen minutes.

National Responsibility In Forestry Perfect- ly Clear Cut

By HENRY S. GRAVES, Chief of the Forest Service

THE nation has an important stake in forestry. Some persons would leave the forests entirely to private owners. Others insist that the public phases of forestry are altogether a state function and that federal activities in this field are uncalled for. BUT NATIONAL RESPONSIBILITY IN FORESTRY IS PERFECTLY CLEAR CUT. There need be no confusion with an equally clear cut responsibility of the states. As to private forestry, little of value has so far been done that has not been an outcome of public action through state or federal agencies, or both.

THE AIM OF THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION IS NOT TO OVERTURN, BUT TO TAKE EVERY POSSIBLE STEP TO INCREASE EFFICIENCY OF THE ORGANIZATION, TO ADJUST DIFFICULTIES AND TO ADVANCE AS FAST AS POSSIBLE THE PURPOSES FOR WHICH THE NATIONAL FORESTS WERE ESTABLISHED.

TOLEDO MAN EXPECTED TO DIE BY SEPTEMBER 20--BUT CHANGED MIND

Real Estate Dealer Finds New Life in First Dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy.

D. L. Bower, treasurer and manager of the New Overland Real Estate Exchange at Toledo, thought death was close upon him. He suffered from derangement of the stomach and digestive tract and his condition was highly discouraging.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Then he cheered up and went to eating. He had new interest in life.

J. W. Wood, Mr. Bower's partner, wrote: "This remedy is surely one of the greatest medicines I ever heard of. My partner spent $2,000 with renowned doctors in trying to get relief. He gave himself until about the 20th of September to live. He has taken three doses of your remedy. Now he can eat and sleep without any distress."

that of hundreds who have suffered just as he did. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is known all over the country. Thousands have discovered its remarkable merit.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucus, acidities and removes poisonous matter. It brings quick relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to H. G. Marshall, 318 East main street, drug store and ask about the results it has been accomplishing—or send to George H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting street, Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and grateful letters from many people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you of its wonderful results.

The Marriage of Monotony.

"Does he give her all the money she wants without asking her how she spends it?"

"That and other equally tame things, I guess," laughed the Bachelor Girl. "Her family and friends think, of course, she made a great match. She lives in fine style on Fifth Avenue, and has beautiful clothes and plenty to eat and all that. But it seems to me I should want to live with a less excellent sort of person."

"Is he one of the 'bound for the top' people?"

"Oh, no. I mean that living with him would be like feeding on excelsior—exceedingly dry and without flavor. He's one of your polished men, so polished that he fairly shines. It's painful—as a steady thing. And he always does everything in the same way, at the same time, on the same day, the year through. I imagine he kisses her good-bye in the morning, not because he wants to, or finds any pleasure in it—but because it is the proper thing to do, and he started doing it at a certain time in the day, probably 9.15 A. M., and so he can't stop without his world falling into chaos. And after she has had a year or so of limousines and diamond necklaces and silk gowns, with excelsior as a pervading background, I often wonder if she wouldn't like a few real human thrills—such as having to scrape and pinch to buy something she wants and enjoying it all the more thereby, and shedding a few tears because the cake she made for company was as fat as a boulder, and having to smuggle up to her husband and comfort him when he lost his job."

"The life she has may have no taste, but those things have a very bitter taste, if they, too, become a steady diet," observed the Bachelor.

"I suppose that is true," responded the Bachelor Girl with a sigh. "It seems rather hard to find a satisfactory life, doesn't it? Though I guess," she concluded brightly, "the proper amount of love mixed in would, in either case, sweeten the taste exactly to their liking."

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your kidneys and neutralize irritating acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys, and causes no bad effects whatever. Have you a pleasant after-noon? lithia-water drink which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

For the Farmers' Benefit

"The puerile attempts of some newspapers to belittle the great school law which passed the House Thursday by a vote of 88 to 26, are extremely ludicrous.

"It would be funny were it not for the fact that it is a shame that newspapers are so hide bound partisan that they will let politics stand in the way of betterment of conditions of mankind.

"Who is here who can say that the law as passed by the house Thursday is not a good law? What newspaper would dare say that the residents of any township shall not have a high school, the same as the cities possess?" says the Wooster News and then continues:

"Mr. Farmer, if this law is a bad one, why should the Republican party organs oppose it? Why are they opposing the other measures of the legislative program? If they are bad laws the Democratic party in State of Ohio would be deadlier than a door nail by reason of their failing to work out as Governor Cox and his supporters have promised.

"They fought the Workmen's Compensation law the same way last year. They told of the disasters that would befall you if it became a law. Did it come true? Just the contrary of what they told you came true.

"The same thing will come true of the school law, the same things will come true of the Warnes tax measure, and the same thing will come true of all the progressive laws, which are being copied by the greatest Republican states in the universe."

"Citizens shall have religious freedom," says the Chinese Constitution, which President Yuan Shi Kai swore to sustain; and this is assumed to be a sufficient guaranty of the liberty of conscience notwithstanding the adoption of Confucianism as the official cult. But what is the Constitution among friends? And, besides, when China ceases to be a Republic there will be no more citizens, only subjects. The expectation that China's six or more treaties with foreign nations will assure protection to native Chinese who adopt Christianity is based on the assumption that China will be more careful to honor her international obligations than the American Congress has been. Maybe so; but that does not reflect any credit on our Congressional treaty-breakers.

Canada is about to inaugurate a parcel post on the American plan. Very soon this continent will be as free from the grip of the express monopoly as Europe is and has been for a generation.

General Coxey is mobilizing his army again. He wants a Government bank in every town where (irredeemable) money will be loaned direct to the people without security, of course.

Life would be very monotonous if there was nothing to complain of.

Records That Should Be Preserved.
In many private homes and in thousands of offices are to be found public records of inestimable value that daily run the risk of destruction. These should be preserved to posterity. Loss would mean annihilation. It is therefore the duty of all discerning ones throughout this broad land to take a personal interest in their preservation. They should no longer be left to the care of officers and indifferent citizens who are in too many instances ignorant of their value and reckless as to their preservation. — Magazine of American History.

Bill Shakespeare

In almost every modern home you'll see Bill Shakespeare's splendid tome. It stands by Bunyan, Milton, Pope and other scrolls of highbrow dope. In every home old Bill's on hand: he ranks with the umbrella stand, the antlers over the sturdier door, the bearskin rug upon the floor. Remote from Poe and Richard Realf, Old Bill is standing on his shelf, and there he stands from year to year, in solitude, majestic, drear. He's like the German eight-day clock which never more will go tick-tock: it stands upon the hallway floor, an ornament, and nothing more. No home's complete without Bill's book, yet no one, in the inglenook, e'er ponders o'er his ripping plays, or reads his vital, red blood lays. He's like the stuffed goose in the hall, the crocodile upon the wall; he's there, with other master minds, because he'll match the window blinds. The father, while his housewife darts, reads George McCutcheon's screaming yarns; the elder daughter, plunged in thought, is reading Rhoda Broughton's rot; the son is reading Rex E. Beach, and now and then lets out a screech. The smaller kids, Jim, Willie, Ruth, are reading up Nick Carter, sleuth. Southeast of Poe and Richard Realf, Old Bill sits lonesome on his shelf.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Feb. 6.—[Special.]—The proposition to acquire the telegraph and telephone lines, urged so strongly by the postmaster general, is taken as a matter of course these days, or at least with less surprise than would have been the case a dozen years ago, when all suggestion of the government owning and operating public utilities was considered wild and fanciful.

But there has been a tendency in the direction of government control and operation of utilities, particularly when the government was the principal user of the product. A powder plant has been erected by the government, and it is proposed to build a plant for the manufacture of armor plate for the ships of the navy. In both cases it was because the products had been monopolized. The government refused to be "squeezed" in purchasing these war materials and decided to manufacture its own powder and armor, or at least a portion of them. It is the fear of monopoly in Alaska that causes the construction of a government railroad in that territory.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE
BY BARBARA BOYD

The Modern Marriage Jest.

"Don't you hate the so-called jokes about marriage and husbands and wives, and things like that?" asked the Bachelor Girl with vehemence.

"Eh!" exclaimed the Bachelor vaguely. "What jokes? I haven't been hearing any."

The Bachelor Girl laughed. "I wasn't reprimanding you," she replied contritely. "But I just saw, in a magazine, one of those vulgarities, misnamed a joke, about married life; and it incensed me. I don't believe in being 'persnickety' or super-critical, but I do think marriage and all it stands for ought to be held in greater respect than it is today. If we take from it its really sacred character it becomes a thing one wouldn't really care to think upon."

"Old Horace Greeley had some great ideas," reminiscently mused the Bachelor, "and one of them was that no joke regarding marriage, the Bible, and something else, I have forgotten what, should be printed in his paper. That was rather fine, I think. It was a standard worth setting and maintaining."

"It certainly was. I wish we had more men like that today in positions that help mould public opinion. To me, there is a present such a lack of reverence."

"The lack of reverence is merely the outward sign of an inner disease. It is the lack of vision to see what is worthy of reverence. The people who make vulgar jokes about marriage do not see to the heart of the matter. They either do not comprehend, or else are incapable of grasping the real significance of the love that is the core of the whole thing, and also the dignity and importance and meaning of 'home,' which marriage stands for. If any one will look into these two things searchingly, until he grasps their eternal essence, I don't think he will either enjoy or express vulgarities, misnamed humor, about them. Horace Greeley did this, and that is the reason he wouldn't tolerate irreverent and flippant jests about them."

"Seems to me, our idea of humor has somewhat degenerated," mused the Bachelor Girl.

"It has, popularly," agreed the Bachelor. "In many cases the idea of humor consists of a misuse of the language and a copious use of slang and semi-profanity. It is no longer a delightful twist of thought, but an amazing twist of expression."

"It is in keeping with the superficial way in which we are taking so many things. I guess the world is very much in the condition it was in Hamlet's time," laughed the Bachelor Girl—"out of joint." "I don't think, though, I was born to set it right. The only thing I shall try to do is to endeavor to hold up the best standards I know in regard to those things we should reverence."

"I am willing to help," said the Bachelor. "Only I do think the best way to uphold the standards of marriage is to live, as near as possible, the ideal married life."

But the Bachelor Girl was concocting a new delicacy in her chafing dish, and was too absorbed to hear.

GREAT BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST
Starting In This Paper Next Tuesday, Feb. 10th

Rules are easy, rewards are rich, while the contest will provide pleasure and profit for all. No entry fee. No troublesome conditions. Simply get next Tuesday's Advocate and name the book which the picture printed that day will represent.

One hundred or more valuable prizes with a value of over $3,000.00 will be awarded at the close of the contest. If by chance you have not seen the list of prizes or the contest rules, write or 'phone to the Advocate at once. Begin at the beginning. Give a few minutes each day to the fun of solving the puzzle pictures.

Ask the Advocate to tell you all about it now. Send your questions by telephone or mail, but get busy, as the big contest starts next Tuesday.

First prize, $500 Cash; second prize, $350 Smith & Nixon piano; third prize, $175 set of Mahogany Furniture (illustrated in today's paper); fourth prize, a beautiful $110 Diamond Ring (Fuchs Bros.), and 95 or more other fine prizes, about which much will be said from time to time. The thing to do now is to resolve to go into the big contest, which is limited to people in this and the adjoining counties. If the proposition is not entirely clear, ask the Advocate to tell you more about it.

United States Most Lawless of Nations

By Dr. W. C. RICHARDSON, Rector St. James' Episcopal Church, Philadelphia

IT IS TO OUR SHAME THAT WE ARE THE MOST LAWLESS CIVILIZED NATION ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH TODAY. MEN ON ALL SIDES ARE LOSING THEIR PRINCIPLES, NOT ONLY IN RELIGION, BUT IN BUSINESS, IN ART, IN EVERYTHING. CUBISM ITSELF ILLUSTRATES A LACK OF FAITH IN WHAT IS BEAUTIFUL.

Commission government is but an excuse. Man makes laws and then expects them to work automatically. In this form of government he will have excuses for knocking more people than before. ALL THE LAWS IN THE WORLD WILL NOT BRING US BACK TO OUR RIGHT SENSES. IT IS UP TO MAN HIMSELF. Personality is the thing that is needed, and until we get that this chaos will continue.

HOW TO GAIN HEALTHY FLESH

W. A. Erman Advises Use of Samose

While thinness may not be disease, yet it is in reality a condition that needs attention. Under the nourishing power of Samose healthy, natural flesh will soon be attached.

This remarkable, flesh-forming food strengthens the system generally and builds up the fleshy tissues so that good, natural plumpness results.

An ounce of flesh is better than a pound of theory. W. A. Erman believes that the best possible demonstration of the flesh-forming powers of Samose is to have it tried by his customers and to induce them to use it, he offers to pay for the Samose in case it does not give satisfaction. No stronger proof than this can be given of his faith in it. He has seen hundreds who were weak, thin and scrawny, become plump, robust and strong, solely through the use of Samose.

The shadow of suspicion has thrown many a man in the shade.

Apply this soothing, penetrating oil directly upon the ache, and like magic relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints, and doesn't burn the skin.
Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those torturous "stitches." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.

LEGISLATORS ARE EXPOSED TO SMALLPOX

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 6.—A large number of members of the Kentucky legislature and many residents of this city are nursing sore arms today, the result of vaccination due to a small pox scare which developed yesterday when it was announced that Senator J. Forrest Porter of Dixon, and Representative A. J. Oliver of Allen county were ill of the disease.
Senator Porter is confined to his bed in his home in Frankfort and Representative Oliver is at his home in Allen county. Both cases are declared by the physicians to be slight. Health officers did not consider the situation serious enough to necessitate recess of the legislature.
Doctors express the opinion that the two legislators contracted the disease from a negro waiter at a hotel, where many of the legislators were stopping.

CLASS OF 42 IS INITIATED BY WYOMING GRANGE

Wyoming Valley grange, No. 1069, located at Venantia, initiated a class of forty-two candidates in the third and fourth degrees, Wednesday night. After the initiation an apple supper occupied the attention of the members. Nine more candidates will be initiated in the first and second degrees in two weeks.

Big Saving if Govern- ment Owned Rail- roads

By Senator WILLIAM S. KENYON of Iowa

PUBLIC ownership of railroads would get us away from the express company parasite, the refrigerator car and every other kind of additional tax on transportation. It would also SETTLE THE RATE PROPOSITION and make impossible such SCANDALOUS FINANCIAL PROCEEDINGS AS HAVE CHARACTERIZED THE NEW HAVEN MANAGEMENT AND THE FRISCO MANAGEMENT.
Other nations have grasped this problem and solved it. I do not see why we should be afraid of it.

IT IS A SUBJECT WHICH THINKING MEN WHO ARE INTERESTED IN THE FUTURE OF THEIR COUNTRY MUST CONSIDER. I EXPECT TO PLACE IN THE RECORD DURING THE DISCUSSION OF THE ALASKAN RAILROAD BILL SOME FIGURES SHOWING THE TREMENDOUS SAVING THERE WOULD BE TO THE PEOPLE IF RAILROADS WERE OWNED AND OPERATED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

MAN'S ARREST, UNLAWFULLY, CAUSES DEATH

Houghton, Mich., Feb. 6.—Witnesses in the Seeberville murder case were prepared today to testify that Steve Putrich, a striking copper miner, had been shot and instantly killed by six deputy sheriffs in the "execution of an unlawful arrest."
Five of the deputy sheriffs are defendants in the case and Thomas Raleigh, the sixth, has disappeared and is being looked for. According to the outline of the state's case the deputies attempted to arrest a striker who had crossed mining property. The striker refused to submit to arrest. While the deputies were leaving, other strikers threw a stick at them. One of the deputies is alleged to have turned about and to have deliberately fired, fatally wounding Putrich. The state alleges the six deputies then fired a fusillade into the windows of a boarding house where Putrich lives, killing one and wounding three.

RHEUMA WILL STOP URIC ACID DEPOSIT

Rheumatic Complications Checked And The "Human Sewers" Restored.
The Kidneys, Bowels and Skin are the "human sewers" which carry off the impurities in the blood. When these are clogged Uric Acid sediment lodges in the muscles and joints and Rheumatism follows.
RHEUMA, the great remedy for all forms of the terrible disease, checks the deposit of Uric Acid.
"I suffered from Rheumatism for six years. Tried different doctors, with no relief. I have taken three bottles of RHEUMA and am entirely free from the disease."—F. W. Miller, Catawissa, Pa.
Evans Drug Store will return your money if it fails; 50 cents a bottle.

MAYOR BAKER QUITS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Cleveland, Feb. 6.—Mayor Newton D. Baker yesterday resigned as a member of the Cleveland chamber of commerce because the chamber is fighting the Mills utility bill, now before the state legislature, which would exempt bonds from the purchase of public utilities from the limitations of the Longworth act. In a letter to Warren S. Hayden, president of the chamber, Baker says the chamber's sub-committee of the committee on municipal finance slighted him by adopting resolutions against the Mills bill without giving him, as mayor, a chance to be heard. In the course of his letter he says: "I am wholly without feeling that any personal discourtesy was intended to me as a member of the chamber, but I cannot overcome a feeling that it has become incompatible for me as mayor to retain my membership."

FIFTY AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS ON TRIP SOUTH

New York, Feb. 6.—Edward N. Hurley vice-president of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association and fifty manufacturers from the middle west who will sail for South America tomorrow on the steamer Vauban, arrived here last night from Chicago. Their trip will be the biggest commercial expedition to Latin-America that has ever left this port on one ship.

WIFE ASKS ALIMONY; AGED MAN SUICIDES

Chillicothe, O., Feb. 6.—Despondent because his wife had sued him for alimony, Frank Grosz, an aged wealthy farmer committed suicide yesterday by shooting. Mrs. Grosz some months ago filed suit against her husband, the case being docketed on the forty second anniversary of their marriage. The hearing was to have taken place on next Monday.

"Might isn't always right," quoted the Wise Guy. "But it is mighty apt not to be left," added the Simple Mug.

If you are going to save up for a rainy day don't wait until the clouds begin to gather.

THIN BLOOD CAUSES BACKACHE

Every muscle in the body needs a supply of rich, red blood in proportion to the work it does.
The muscles of the back are under heavy strain and have but little rest. When the blood is thin they lack nourishment and rebel. The result is a sensation of pain in those muscles.
The best medical authorities agree that backache seldom or never means kidney trouble. Real organic kidney disease may have progressed to a critical point without developing a pain in the back. Doctors detect its presence by the excretions of the kidneys themselves.
Pains in the back should always lead the sufferer to look to the condition of the blood. It will be found in most cases that the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood will stop the grumbling of the ill-nourished muscles of the back. How much better it is to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the blood than to give way to unreasonable alarm about your kidneys. Any doctor can make tests in ten minutes that will set your fears at rest or tell you the worst.
All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A free book, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent on request to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

HOT TEA BREAKS A COLD--TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

FOUND WHITE GIRLS HIDDEN IN OPIUM DEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Los Angeles, Feb. 6. -- While searching a Chinese rooming house in Chinatown last night for opium smokers, the police discovered three white girls hidden between the ceiling of the first story and flooring of the second. The girls were crowded in a small space, concealed by a false ceiling, into which they had been forced when the police entered the building.

At police headquarters the girls said they all were over 20 years of age. They refused to tell how they came to be in the house or to give any information against Young Yick, a Chinese who resided with them. The police believe they have found a Chinese white slave depot.

COMMISSION ON MINES TO VISIT MICHIGAN STATE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6. -- Members of the House mining committee who will investigate strike conditions in Michigan and Colorado will leave Washington tonight. A sub-committee headed by Representative Taylor will go to Hancock, Mich., and begin the investigation there Monday morning.

YEATS, AN IRISH PLAYWRIGHT, TO VISIT AMERICA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 6. -- William Butler Yeats, the Irish artist-author-poet-playwright, is a passenger on the Lusitania, due today. It has been twenty years since he visited this country. He is coming now at the invitation of his friends, who have taken great interest in his Irish national theatre movement, and while here he will deliver lectures on the subject.

Easy to Buy a Slave In Filipino Town

By DEAN C. WORCESTER, Former Secretary of Interior in Philippines

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY IN WHICH SLAVERY CAN BE PREVENTED IN THE PHILIPPINES AND THAT IS BY PASSING A LAW MAKING IT A CRIME TO BUY AND SELL HUMAN FLESH.

The attempt to deny that slavery exists in the Philippines is absolutely absurd, and yet that attempt has been made repeatedly. American ignorance of conditions has been imposed upon. Until recently there has been little or NO INCLINATION TO CONCEAL THE FACT OF SLAVERY. Every one in the islands knows about it. I found the children in school writing compositions about it. The preceptress of a girls' school told me that her young ladies often discussed the prices they had paid for their maids.

The slaves are not put up on a block and sold to the highest bidder as they were in the south. If you wish TO PURCHASE A SLAVE IN A FILIPINO TOWN YOU GO TO THE MARKET PLACE AND LET YOUR ERRAND BE KNOWN. The dealers, who always are loafing around, are immediately pointed out to you. You accost one of them, tell him what you require, and if he has not the sort of a slave you wish in stock he will assure you that the supply in the mountains is inexhaustible and that he will soon capture just what you are looking for.

IF HE HAPPEN TO HAVE WHAT YOU WANT HE WILL LEAD YOU TO HIS HOUSE AND THERE EXHIBIT THE SLAVES HE HAS ON HAND. YOU SELECT THE BOY OR GIRL, MAN OR WOMAN. YOU FANCY, PAY THE PRICE AND FOREVERMORE THAT SLAVE IS YOUR ABSOLUTE PROPERTY SO LONG AS YOU CAN KEEP HIM FROM RUNNING AWAY.

TEARS.
If every wish were granted, if every hope came true, if every sorrow grew, if every day were sunny and every one were wise, there'd be no sweet in honey, there'd be no joys to prize.

If we knew that tomorrow would be just like today, with not one touch of sorrow, no care to spoil our play, no doubt and no misgiving, no heartaches and no fears, then vain were all our living, we'd crave the joy of tears.

We'd sigh for sacred sorrow, we'd long to feel the rain, and we should yearn to borrow the blessedness of pain, for more than all the pleasure that came and quickly fled, above the years we treasure, the tears that we have shed.

--Detroit Free Press.

WHAT'S THE USE? HUNGER STRIKE WILL FREE HER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Glasgow, Scotland, Feb. 6. -- A suffragette giving the name of Rhode Robinson was arrested here yesterday and taken to Dunblane, Perthshire in connection with the incendiary fires attributed to militant suffragette "arson squads" which occurred Wednesday at Aberuchill castle, the "House of Ross" and Saint Fillans mansion in that country.

WARD POLITICIAN ALLEGED TO HAVE ASSAULTED WOMAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Feb. 6. -- Joseph McDonough, a fifth ward politician who may Walsh, one of the women election clerks who served at Tuesday's registration, charged attacked and beat her last night while she was canvassing the ward in her official capacity, surrendered to the police today.

Miss Walsh declared that McDonough struck and injured her after ordering her from his house. McDonough denied that he struck the woman. Friends of Miss Walsh believed that the attack was prompted by McDonough's resentment of the entrance of women to politics.

28 WITNESSES APPEARED IN MURDER CASE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Feb. 5. -- Twenty-eight witnesses appeared before Coroner Foertmeyer today to testify at the inquest of the death of Mrs. Millie Herrell, who was found murdered in her home on Mound street. Jacob Herrell, her husband, who confessed that he killed the woman, and John Mason, her cousin, were taken into the court room by city detectives. Among the witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crutchlow, mother and father of Mrs. Herrell, and James Crutchlow, a brother.

Dropsy Treated Free

By Dr. Miles, the Great Specialist. Who Will Send a New $2.75 Treatment Free. Many Have Been Cured After Doctors Failed.

At first no disease is apparently more harmless than dropsy; a little swelling of the eyelids, hands, feet, ankles or abdomen. Finally there is great shortness of breath, faint spells, sometimes nausea and vomiting, even bursting of the limbs and a lingering and wretched death if the dropsy is not removed.

Dr. Miles has been known as a leading specialist in these diseases for 30 years. His liberal offer of a $2.75 Treatment free to all sufferers, is certainly worthy of serious consideration. You may never have such an opportunity again.

The Grand Dropsy Treatment consists of four dropsy remedies in one, also Tonic Tablets and Pura-Lax for removing the water. This treatment is specially prepared for each patient and is ten times as successful as that of most physicians. It usually relieves the first day, and removes swelling in six days in most cases. Delay is dangerous. Send for Remarkable Cures in Your State.

All afflicted readers may have Book, Examination Chart, Opinion, Advice and a Two-Pound Treatment free. Write at once. Describe your case. Address, Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. 1A, 124 to 126 Main Street, Elkhart, Ind.

22 CASES ASSIGNED THIS TERM

Criminal Trials To Start Feb. 23, in Common Pleas—Ask
Extra Week.

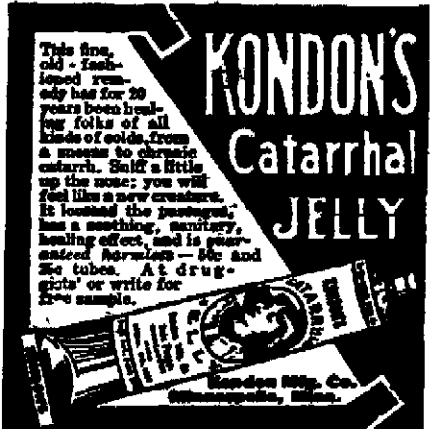

Trials of criminal cases will be taken up in common pleas court for this term beginning with February 23. The assignment list made public by Prosecutor J. Howard Jones includes a list of twenty-two cases. The prosecutor has recommended to the court that an additional week be reserved after the close of the tentative assignment for taking up other criminal cases that may be ready for trial.

The complete list, as prepared by the prosecutor, includes the following defendants indicted on the charges following their names:

- Monday, Feb. 23.

Would Make 'Em Pay Toll.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6.—President Wilson announced yesterday he would use every legitimate influence at his disposal to have repealed the provision of the Panama canal act exempting American coastwise vessels from the payment of tolls.

MONUMENT TO MARK PRES. TYLER'S GRAVE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6.—The memory of John Tyler, former president of the United States, is shortly to be honored by the erection of a monument over his grave in Hollywood cemetery, Richmond, Va., for which congress has appropriated $10,000. Secretary Garrison of the war department, charged with the execution of the act of congress has designated Lieutenant Colonel E. E. Winslow, corps of engineers of the army at Norfolk, Va., to look after all the preliminary work. The secretary already has invited sculptors of established reputation to submit designs for the monument which must be submitted to Colonel Winslow by February 15. It is proposed that the monument in its general design shall consist of a monolithic shaft resting on a stone pedestal either alone or accompanied by a life sized bust in bronze.

DEATH CLAIMS THEATRICAL MAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 6.—Theodore Bromley, for 40 years a theatrical manager, died yesterday of pleuro-pneumonia.
Mr. Bromley was at one time business manager for Lawrence Barrett, and thereafter he acted in the same capacity when Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett formed their historic partnership. He served with Clarence Brune, Minnagale and finally Julia Marlowe.
In 1894 Mr. Bromley became business secretary of the Actors Fund of America and was continued in that position until 1911, when ill-health compelled his retirement.

ZERO TEMPERATURE RECORDED IN DENVER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Denver, Colo., Feb. 6.—The cold blast and slight snowfall which swept down from the northwest last night, caused record drops of temperature throughout the Rocky Mountain region.
In Denver the temperature early today was 5 degrees below zero, the lowest for the season.
At Colorado Springs, Colo., the thermometer registered 5 below zero, while at Leadville, Colo., blizzard weather prevailed.
At Trinidad, Colo., coal mine strikers and militiamen on duty in the strike zone suffered alike in the grip of one of the worst storms of the season.

FREIGHT CAR IS MADE BALL ROOM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Feb. 6.—A big freight car, fitted with a hardwood wax floor on which passengers may dance, will be a part of a special train which will take a number of Chicagoans to the Mardi Gras at New Orleans on February 21, according to announcement today.
The freight car will be transformed into a "traveling ball room" by means of tapestries and artificial flowers.

PENN. SELECTS TEAM.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—In the final time trials yesterday for the relay team to represent the University of Pennsylvania in the race with Dartmouth at the Boston Athletic Association games tomorrow, Bacon beat out Langer and Church for the place of fourth man on the team. His time for the approximate 750 yards was 1 min. 42 4-5 seconds.

World Better and Spirit of Good Will Spreading

By JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

I AM thankful I am alive and healthy at seventy-four and to know a spirit has been awakened among men and nations to make the world grow better. We should be happy to feel that the church has kept singular pace with the world, industrially and socially, particularly in our own country. It was intended as a guide for men and women.

WORLDLY ATTRACTIONS HAVE INCREASED ITS BURDENS OF WORK, they have not halted its progress. We should all be thankful.

THE PURSES OF CIVILIZED NATIONS HAVE BEEN OPENED GENEROUSLY IN RESPONSE TO THE NEEDS OF THE POOR, WHICH IS ANOTHER NOTABLE EVIDENCE THAT THE SPIRIT OF GOOD WILL IS DESTINED TO BE WORLDWIDE. A SPIRIT OF INTERNATIONAL AMITY HAS GAINED CONTROL OF RIGHT THINKING MEN, HAVING AS ITS AIM THE BUILDING OF A PEACE MELTING POT FOR NATIONS OF THE WORLD.

Church of Christ Grows.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The actual enrolled membership of Christian churches within continental United States showed a net increase of 618,000 or 1.8 per cent. during 1913, according to statistics just made public by the Washington office of the federal council of Churches of Christ in America. The Methodist church leads in the increased membership with 220,000.

Owes His Life to This Lung Remedy

If you neglect a continued cough or cold you are in constant danger of easily contracting serious Lung Trouble. The cough or cold which does not yield to ordinary treatment should be a warning to you and preventive measures should be taken as soon as possible. In many cases Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, has brought permanent recovery. Read this:

Queens Court, D. L. N. Y.
"Gentlemen: In the year 1906 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty short cough. I went to several doctors, who gave me a lot of medicine. Finally, I went to a specialist, who gave me creosote that made me sick of all kinds of food; consequently I failed in health. I then went to the Catskills, and seemed to get better, but the cough still kept up. I stayed there for one year, and then went to a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man. About the time of my return, my brother recommended Eckman's Alternative to me very highly. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now well, and I dare say that I had not been for Eckman's Alternative." (Abbreviated.) JOSEPH J. THOESCHER.

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Scurvy, Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

Should Be Partnership Between Industries to Help Farmer

By PETER RADFORD, National Lecturer of Farmers' Union of America

FARMING is the BIGGEST BUSINESS IN THE WORLD, and constructive work that will permanently benefit agriculture must be arranged on a BIG, BROAD, COMPREHENSIVE BASIS. Co-operating with the farmer as an individual is not sufficient and will not reach the heart of the problem. The heavy and more important work can only be done through organization.

THERE MUST BE A PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN INDUSTRIES AND EACH LINE OF ORGANIZED INDUSTRY WORK WITHIN ITS OWN ORBIT. THE BANKERS CAN RENDER A SERVICE IN WORKING OUT A SYSTEM OF CREDITS BETTER ADAPTED TO THE BUSINESS OF FARMING. THE TRANSPORTATION LINES CAN HELP US BY LOCATING MARKETS AND REACHING THEM IN BEST CONDITION AT THE LOWEST EXPENSE.

MOOSERS REFUSE TO JOIN G. O. P. RANKS

A HAPPY CHILD IN A FEW HOURS

Listen, Mother! When fretful, cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed. Liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it cannot cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

LOVERS DIE IN SUICIDE PACT; BOTH WERE SHOT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Greensburg, Pa., Feb. 6.—Sitting upright, the bodies of John McFadden, aged 20, and Miss Anna Lutz, aged 20, were found in an automobile two miles east of Ligonier, Westmoreland county, early this morning. The girl's arms were around McFadden's neck. Each had been shot through the heart. The county authorities believe McFadden killed the girl and then shot himself. Last midnight McFadden telephoned to the garage where he was employed, and when the proprietor answered, said, "good-bye," and hung up the receiver. Two automobiles started out to find McFadden. They came upon the automobile in the center of the road. The engine was still running but the occupants were dead. The young people were well known here. No cause for the tragedy is known.

RAIDS OFFICES IN CLEVELAND ONE ARRESTED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Cleveland, Feb. 6.—The offices of the United Engineering and Construction company, Schofield building, were raided at noon yesterday by state and county officers and books and records of the company were confiscated. The raid was conducted by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Doerflinger and R. H. Young, inspector of securities in the state department of banking. Theodore Rodman, treasurer and general manager, was taken into custody on a warrant charging selling stock without a state permit, in violation of the new "blue sky" law. A warrant is also held for Wm. R. Rose, president of the company.

LAKE STEAMER ON MID-WINTER TRIP

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Sandusky, Feb. 6.—The passenger steamer Tourist, which has been in winter quarters at Put-in-Bay, made the trip to Sandusky yesterday, arriving at the Columbus avenue slip at 10:30 a. m. A number of persons who would otherwise have to spend the entire winter on the island made the trip to this city. The steamer returned to the island later in the day. This is the first time in many years that mid-winter navigation has been possible between the island and the mainland. Captain Dodge was in command.

Detective Not Guilty.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 6.—Martin Flanagan, a former police chief, and Fred Turner, a detective, were adjudged not guilty of bribery by a jury in the circuit court yesterday. They were indicted on a charge of sharing in a $1,000 bribe given by a woman of the underworld.

Will Mexico Be There?

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 6.—The United States, it became known at the White House yesterday, has issued a call for the holding of the third peace conference at The Hague next year. The government took this action, it is understood, at the request of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland.

Curious Ways of the Papuans.

In the Girara country, Papua, a district of New Guinea, where the country is almost entirely submerged, the natives are said to claim descent from the dog. They possess five totems, which are drawn on all their houses. Their villages are erected on hillocks so as to be clear of the water, and the people of each village inhabit one large common house, sometimes as much as four to five hundred feet long and sixty to eighty feet in width. The center of this huge building is a kind of common hall, which is used only by the men, while the walls of the structure are divided into cubicles in three or four floors, access to which is gained by means of ladders. The women are not allowed to enter the building by the same door as the men. A great deal of sorcery prevails in the western division. In the wilder parts of the country the chief is himself a head sorcerer. He claims to be able to separate his spirit from his body and to send it on various missions, including that of killing people.—Argonaut.

World Ruled by Brute Force—Reason and Conscience Subordinated.

By the Rev. Dr. JOHN A. GORDON of Boston

THE military spirit is rampant all over the world. The military spirit for defensive purposes is a necessity, a noble necessity, and, further, if one nation arms itself to the teeth by land and by sea it compels every other nation to do the same. Nevertheless, let us see what reliance on military power means.

IT DOESN'T MEAN THE REIGN OF REASON; IT DOESN'T MEAN THE REIGN OF CONSCIENCE; IT DOESN'T MEAN THE SOVEREIGNTY OF ENLIGHTENED SELF INTEREST. IT MEANS IN THE LAST ANALYSIS THAT RELIANCE IS PLACED BY THE GREAT NATIONS OF THE WORLD UPON BRUTE POWER. OUT OF THIS CONCEPTION OF LIFE AS DEPENDENT FINALLY NOT UPON REASON, NOT UPON RIGHT, BUT UPON BRUTE POWER, COMES THE AMAZING INTERPRETATION OF HUMAN SOCIETY DOWNWARD INTO THE STRUGGLE OF EXISTENCE UPON THE ANIMAL LEVEL, WITH ITS PRINCIPLE OF THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST.

Here is the world, here are the good things in it, and there are not enough to go round. The STRONG GET MORE, the LESS STRONG GET LESS, and the WEAK GET NONE. In the contest they are DRIVEN REMORSELESSLY TO THE WALL AND DIE WITHOUT PITY. Here is an utter contradiction of the spirit of the Christian gospel, which puts the trumpet to its lips and calls out to all the world that we are strong, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak and not live to please ourselves.

There is quite a difference between being good and being known as a good thing

In guarding his reputation every man should be his own night watchman.

VALENTINE'S

CLARESSA MACKIE

Copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.

THE frozen branches of the bare trees creaked as the wind came out of the north. The black trunks stood boldly against the ruddy sunset sky.

"It looks like a Christmas card or a valentine," muttered Abel Dycks as he opened his kitchen door and turned away from the evening sky.

Within the warm, cozy room he could see the trim form of his uncle's widow, Lizzie Dycks, who kept house for him. "It's coming out colder, Aunt Lizzie," he said as he removed his outdoor things.

"So Imogen says," stung Aunt Lizzie over her shoulder as she opened the oven door.

"Imogen!" Abel wheeled about and stared at his aunt. "Imogen!" he repeated stupidly.

"Calling me?" There was a swish of silken skirts as Abel's pretty half cousin glided into the kitchen. She held out slender hands glittering with cheap rings. A deep rose glowed in her thin, dark face, and the scarlet of her lips was pressed in a straight hard line. Her black eyes had lost their old-time softness. It was as if the past three years behind the counter of a city department store had incased her in a brittle armor of resistance to all softening influences.

Abel shook hands with her and asked perfunctorily concerning her life in the town. Imogen chattered gaily as she flew about helping her mother place supper on the table.

"I didn't take any vacation last summer, and now I'm going to have two weeks off," remarked Imogen, glancing across the table at her cousin's grave, rugged countenance.

Abel was more disturbed at Imogen's return than he dared to admit. He had always known, although he had had no positive proof of that fact, that Imogen had come between him and Dell Gordon, but how he could not conceive, for Abel was slow to think and knew little of women's wiles.

He had been almost engaged to Dell. There only remained the question to be asked and answered, for there was perfect understanding between them. Then he had intrusted the beautiful question to the tender care of good St. Valentine, and from that day to this Dell had ignored him—three long years of heartbreaking pain and self-questioning.

In some way he guessed that Imogen had played him false, but there was no tangible proof that he could lay a finger upon. Imogen and her mother were living in his home, and the girl made no secret of her liking for her handsome cousin. After his estrangement from Dell Gordon, Imogen went away to the nearby city and seldom came home.

"Do you remember Dell Gordon?" asked Mrs. Dycks, with assumed carelessness.

Imogen laughed shrilly. "Of course I do—known her all my life, haven't I?" "I desay," went on Aunt Lizzie hastily. "Mrs. Gordon told me Dell has gone to work in Wickersham's store. She's going to help over Valentine's day, and if they like her maybe she can stay right on. It's a coincidence."

"In what way?" demanded Imogen. "Because it's Valentine's day—she's to work over St. Valentine's day," returned Lizzie significantly.

Abel raised his head and looked deep into her frightened eyes. But he did not speak.

"Well?" Imogen's face was terribly white.

Lizzie Dycks' face was glorified in the moment of her martyrdom.

"It does seem as if the Lord had planned it all. They say she lost her head on Valentine's day, and maybe—maybe he put her in Wickersham's this year so she'd have a chance to get him back again."

Abel's chair crashed back on the floor. He did not pause to pick it up. He spoke no word of apology.

The two women heard him stamping into his boots. They knew when he shrugged himself into the big bearskin coat, and there was silence between them until the gate latch clicked behind his flying feet.

Then Lizzie Dycks lifted her pale face from her shaking hands and looked at her daughter.

"Forgive me, Imogen," she pleaded pitifully. "I had to do it."

Imogen suddenly looked old.

"You knew, then, mother?" she whispered, with a dull blush.

Lizzie nodded. "I suspected—I didn't know how, but I knew that you played 'em some trick that Valentine's day."

"Oh, mother, mother!" suddenly wailed Imogen, as she laid her dark head against her mother's bosom.

The two women talked intimately for several moments. Then Imogen arose and slipped into warm wraps. Her face was flushed, and her eyes shone with soft, ill-lustre.

"Do you want I should go with you dear?" asked her mother tenderly.

"No—no—mother, you have had enough to bear. After they are married you will come to me, and we will make our home in Brushville." She kissed Lizzie's cheek and was gone.

Outside, the moon was shining and the north wind blew the powdery snow in crisp stinging furies that sparkled like diamond dust.

her duplicity before Dell Gordon's reproachful eyes.

"But it will have to be done the hard way!" she murmured as she hurried on. "I deserve it all, every bit. It makes me sick to think of myself then. I couldn't do it now; I care too much for Abel. It's in a new, different way, I guess."

Wickersham's bookstore was brilliantly lighted this eve of St. Valentine's day. There was a constant stream of people passing in and out of the doorway. Within there were much mirth and merry chatter among the young customers as they examined the gay valentines spread on the counters.

Imogen saw Abel's broad shoulders pushing through the crowd toward the back of the store, where Dell Gordon's crisp, fair curls and sad face appeared behind the counter.

She must be there, shoulder to shoulder with Abel, so that he should have a fair chance with Dell.

Imogen nodded greetings right and left as she hurried toward Abel. Those who knew her and Abel smiled knowingly at each other. A marriage between the young farmer and his half cousin was expected.

Abel Dycks and Dell Gordon were alone for a moment.

"Dell, tell me what happened. I never could guess what I did!" Dell shrugged her thin shoulders. "You never did anything—much," she said reluctantly. "Hello, Imogen!"

Abel frowned down at the new arrival. Imogen's lips were pale as they framed her confession.

"You didn't do a thing, Abel," put in Imogen hastily. "I was the one who made the trouble."

"Imogen!" Abel's protest was drowned in the girl's low voiced confession.

"I must tell what I did. I am sorry—sorry, but it is not too late. You sent a valentine to Dell that day three years ago. I—I saw it on your bureau, and, oh, Abel, I opened it, and—I took it out, and I put in a horrid comic one. Here is the one I took out, Dell. It is yours."

Imogen extended the tender missive across the counter. It was a gay composition of intertwined hearts.

Abel snatched it from Imogen's hand and gave it to Dell. His face was ashen with emotion.

"It isn't too late, Dell," he muttered hoarsely.

Dell Gordon surveyed the valentine with some impatience. She made no

"IT ISN'T TOO LATE," HE MUTTERED, move to take it. There was compunction and some fear in the glance she cast about before she leaned across the counter.

"It is too late now, Abel. It was too late three years ago," she said in a strained voice.

"What do you mean?" demanded Abel.

"Promise not to tell!" Dell's pretty face was working strangely.

Abel nodded, and Imogen leaned forward and caught Dell's hand in her own.

"What is it, Dell?" she asked, with a pitting glance at Abel.

"Well, long before Abel sent that valentine—yes, while I was keeping company with you, Abel—I was married to Frank Keane. His folks objected, and so we ran away. Nobody knew it but my folks. And you know what happened: Frank went to the Philippines and was killed, and I shall never care about anybody else. It's all right, Imogen: don't cry. I'm the one to blame. Abel—I hope you'll forgive me."

She darted away to the front of the store, leaving the two stunned and shaken. As in a dream they heard her gay, artificial laugh that covered the secret of her widowhood.

Somewhat Abel found himself on the homeward road with his cold hand tight in Imogen's grasp.

He looked down and saw hot tears coursing down her cheeks. Where was Imogen's veneer of hardness?

"Don't be sorry for me, dear," he said with an effort. "Somehow I don't seem to care very much about it. Now it appears to me as if there was nothing good and true in the world except you."

"Me?" cried poor Imogen, covering her burning face.

Abel gently drew her hands down and held them tightly.

"Yes, you. You shined because you loved me; you confessed because you loved me more. Your confession has wiped out all else, dear." He stooped and kissed her face, softened into wondrous beauty and happiness.

A SOUR STOMACH GAS, INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsin" digests 3,000 grains food, ending stomach misery in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas, or eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fulness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless, tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gas, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

A Woman Is as Likely to Possess Executive Abilities as a Man

By Miss KATHARINE B. DAVIS,
Head of the Department of Corrections, New York City

POSITIONS should go to the persons best qualified to fill them.

A woman is as likely to possess those qualities as a man. And the choice should be made upon an individual basis, with the matter of sex left merely as an incident and not as a principal consideration. I am not opposed to woman suffrage. I simply haven't had time to give to it, as I have been busy with other matters. I hope the women will call upon me here. I will, of course, be glad to see them.

A NUMBER OF PEOPLE HAVE ASKED ME ABOUT WOMEN'S WORK IN THE WORLD. IT ISN'T DIFFERENT FROM MEN'S WORK. MEN AND WOMEN WILL WORK TOGETHER IN THE FUTURE MORE THAN IN THE PAST. I AM GOING TO WORK WITH MEN IN THIS DEPARTMENT. MY FIRST DEPUTY IS A MAN, AND THE SECRETARY OF THE DEPARTMENT WILL BE A MAN. MY PERSONAL SECRETARY WILL BE A WOMAN.

Take the case of the family. The man has duties to perform in rearing a family that are as marked as the duties of a woman. The man and woman get along together in the joint obligations toward the family, and we will get along just that way in business life. The question of choosing one person or another for some certain position will be reduced to a PERSONAL EQUATION in which recognition will be made of the fact that a WOMAN CAN DO MOST ANY TASK that a man can if she happens to have had the necessary training and experience.

A clock has been invented which runs by its own weight.

A Fateful Valentine

By ANNA A. GREENLEAF.

DEACON PERKINS was the "handy man" of the neighborhood. Pleasant, obliging, willing to inconvenience himself if need be to do a favor for his friends and neighbors, he was often called upon on his weekly trips to town to do their errands. Those who knew him most intimately never suspected that he possessed one grain of self conceit, yet he it known that he had one peculiarity that savored somewhat of that undesirable quality, in that he secretly believed every marriageable female for miles around to be scheming to provide herself with a husband at the expense of his bachelorhood. There were two women whom he studiously avoided—Mury Ann Spratt, a thin, angular, sharp tongued spinster of fifty, and Mrs. Mudgett, a plump, smiling, rosy little widow of the same age.

On this particular morning, the 14th of February, to be exact, the deacon hitched up and started for town.

The afternoon was waning when the deacon drove home with his wagon well filled with dry goods and provisions. Miss Spratt invited him to sit while she told him about the leak around the chimney; then came the flow of after talk, which he so much dreaded. When the confidential stage was reached, however, the words of "The Spider and the Fly" came to warn him and he made bold his escape. When he reached the Widow Mudgett's the widow looked so very harmless and pretty in her bright afternoon gown, with her little curls bobbing up and down her forehead, that the deacon forgot his fears, and after laying his bundles upon the table stretched his hands over the red hot stove, enjoying its warmth, and would fain have stayed longer had not a tiny spider, busily weaving its web, attracted his attention.

There was but one more delivery to be made, and he found the little girl who had ordered a valentine waiting at her gate for the coveted treasure. "Is it pretty?" she asked eagerly. "It is a real beauty," the deacon answered, smiling, "and as to the verse—well, I forgot all about the verse, but I guess likely it has one. We'll see." But the deacon searched his baskets and pockets in vain.

HE WAS IN THE WIDOW'S ARMS.

"There, there," he said consolingly, as the child began to whimper, "don't cry; 'tain't lost. I must have left it somewhere, and I'll hunt it up." As he spoke the unwilling nag was turned about, toward the widow's.

In the meantime the widow began unwrapping her bundles when she caught sight of an envelope lying upon the table. It was unaddressed, but her woman's curiosity tempted her to peep in. "Tain't a letter at all," she muttered in disappointed tones. "It's Na-nette's valentine. I heard her ask the deacon to get her one." As she spoke she removed the valentine, idly inspected it and began to read the verse.

"I've caught him this time," she said. "He is too polite, too generous-hearted, to humiliate me."

At this juncture the deacon entered the room, and before he had a chance to speak he was struggling in the plump widow's embrace, her soft arms closed about his neck, and she implanted a loud, resounding kiss upon his cheek.

He was terribly shocked. His eye bulged with a frightened stare, and his face, never handsome, became so hideous that the Widow Mudgett could scarce contain her risibles as she drew from her bosom the innocent cause of his present predicament and held the verse to his astonished ear. He read: "Don't keep me waiting, I am so full of mine. Let a kiss be your own for me, so I am entire."

"Such a romantic proposal!" cried the widow. "How could I have expected 'Yes'?"

It happened, as you see, that at the wedding day was set, and all plans were made ere he hit

VALVE BREAKS; ENGINEER DIES FROM SCALDS

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Feb. 6.—The oil tank steamer San Greco in port from Rotterdam reported that on Monday evening a valve box in her engine room broke, filling the compartment with steam. William Kemp, an engineer, was scalded to death and three other members of the crew were seriously burned. They were in the ship's hospital when the vessel came in port.

"Tommy—Pop, what is remorse?" Tommy's Pop—"Remorse, my son, is—the dark brown taste of dissipation."

WHEN WE WALKED IN ARCADE.

When we two walked in Arcade
How sweet the summer were!
How thick the branches overhead,
How soft the grass beneath our tread,
And thickets where the sun burned red
Were full of wings as if, my dear,
When we two walked in Arcade
Through paths young hearts prefer.

SINCE we two walked in Arcade
(How long ago it seems!)
High hopes have died disconsolate.
The calm eyed angel men call Fate
Stands with drawn sword before the gate
That shuts out all our dreams, my dear,
Since we two walked in Arcade
Beside the crystal streams.

BEYOND the woods of Arcady
The little brooks are dry,
The brown grass nestles in the heat,
The roads are rough beneath our feet,
Above our heads no branches meet,
And yet, although we sigh, my dear,
Beyond the woods of Arcady
We see more of the sky.

VITAL FORCE

Disease germs are on every hand. They are in the very air we breathe. A system "run down" is a prey for them. One must have vital force to withstand them. Vital force depends on digestion—on whether or not food nourishes—on the quality of blood coursing through the body.

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery

Strengthens the weak stomach. Gives good digestion. Enlivens the sluggish liver. Feeds the starved nerves. Again full health and strength return. A general upbuilding enables the heart to pump like an engine running in oil. The vital force is once more established to full power. Year in and year out for over forty years this great health-restoring remedy has been spreading throughout the entire world—because of its ability to make the sick well and the weak strong. Don't despair of "being your old self again." Give this vegetable remedy a trial—Today—Now. You will soon feel "like new again." Sold in liquid or tablet form by Druggists or trial box for 50c by mail. Write Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

The stock will be marked in plain figures. We guarantee you that the prices are lower and the values such as you could only picture in your most exalted moments of imagination. Were we to use the most emphatic language, we could not sufficiently impress upon you the importance of these bargains. Why, language is simply too faint to convey to you even an idea of the extraordinary values to be found. Bear in mind, the following items are merely representative, and we can only give you a glimpse of what you can save by quoting prices on a small portion of this stock, for if we should dare to quote prices on all these goods, it would require the space of a 24-page newspaper. And now then, in offering these bargains, we make no reservations, and include and place at your disposal every article, every garment contained in this stock. To fully realize and properly appreciate the marvelous values to be found here you must visit the store yourself.

ZEMO Proves a Wonderful Success—Stops Itching Instantly and Brings Permanent Results.

Get a 30c Bottle Today and Prove It.

Don't think that eczema, that nearly drives you wild, can't be gotten rid of. It can—and ZEMO is all you need to do it.

This clean, anti-septic solution goes to the very root of eczema and conquers it as it does other skin affections. Its relief is immediate and its results lasting. ZEMO has often been imitated but positively never equaled. It will surprise you as it has so many others, by leaving your skin as clear as the finest linen.

You never had eczema in your life. You will get this relief instantly by getting a 30c bottle of ZEMO right away—now. There's no more excuse for enduring such misery.

ZEMO is sold and guaranteed by druggists everywhere, and in Newark, by T. J. Evans, Drug Store, Warden Hotel Block.

aged 57, who died Thursday in Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus, of pneumonia, was brought here to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alda Field, Avalon apartments, West Main street. The funeral service will be conducted there by Rev. C. C. Roof at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Interment will be in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Steinmetz was the daughter of Nathan Evans, of St. Louisville. One son and one daughter survive. The surviving son is Fred Steinmetz. The two children of Mrs. Field were the only grandchildren of the deceased. Mrs. Steinmetz is also survived by one sister Mrs. Mary Parker of Mansfield, and one brother, Morgan Evans of St. Louisville.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends and relatives for their kindness during the sickness and death of our husband and brother, William H. Zipperer. Also the Sons and Daughters of Veterans, Rev. Schmidt, the choir and Messrs. Bradley and Balzer, and for the beautiful floral offerings. The Wife and Sister. 6-1*

Card of Thanks.

We extend our thanks to all our friends and neighbors, the Licking Laundry company, who so kindly assisted us, Mrs. Boshare and Mrs. Westall for their services and for the beautiful floral offerings and to all who so kindly sympathized with us during the sickness and death of our son Richard. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harter. 5-1*

Pleasures.

The objects of pleasure are two in number. First, to kill time, and second, to keep us from doing something else which would make us more miserable. The pleasures of the American people, roughly speaking, are like wise twofold—namely, making money and spending it. Some people derive all their pleasure from making money and others all their pleasure from spending it. Others combine the two. Being an inventive people, the Americans have created many ways of spending money. Being too busy making it to spend any time on the drugery of running their country they spend a large portion of it in supporting the politicians. This, indeed, is one of their chief pleasures. And their superb sense of humor enables them to enjoy intensely the accounts of what all the politicians are doing, which enterprising papers publish from day to day.

The Americans have other pleasures, but compared with this one they are mostly trivial—Life.

Obituary

Mrs. A. J. Sutton.

Mrs. A. J. Sutton, died at her home in Jersey township, Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock of a complication of diseases, at the age of 67 years.

Early in life she became the wife of A. J. Sutton. To this union four children were born, two of whom preceded her to the better world, in early childhood. She with her family lived in Newark for 25 years until they moved to the farm in Jersey township where the last two years of her life were spent.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, two sons, William and John of Newark, six grandchildren, one great-grandchild, one sister Mrs. Silas Hayes, and other relatives and a host of friends.

The funeral will take place from the United Brethren church, East Main street, Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, (standard time). Interment at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mr. Guy Warner.

Word has been received here that Mr. Guy Warner died Monday morning at Denver Col. Death was due, the message stated, to an abscess near the heart.

Mr. Warner, who was a teacher in the Denver high school, was born and reared between Lock and Croton. He was 29 years of age, and is survived by his wife, a bride of a few months, his parents, a brother and a sister.

It is said that Mr. Warner's trouble originated several weeks ago when he over-exerted himself shoveling snow from the city streets following a blizzard. The remains arrived at Croton Thursday morning and funeral services were held there Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the M. E. church. Burial in Croton.

Mrs. Louise Stanbery Birkey.

Mrs. Louise Stanbery Birkey, age 80 years, widow of the late James L. Birkey, and daughter of the late James Stanbery, died Friday morning following a year's illness of complication of diseases and old age.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Stanbery home, 68 East Locust street. Rev. L. P. Franklin of Trinity Episcopal church will officiate. Interment at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Jennie Steinmetz.

WINCE—STOUT.

At noon Thursday Dr. L. C. Sparks united in marriage Mr. Arthur W. Wince and Miss Myrtle R. Stout, residents of the northern part of the county. The couple will go to house-keeping in Utica.

The Coterie club is holding a business session today at the home of Mrs. Cliff Frye at her home in North Fourth street.

Miss Mabel Young is entertaining the members of the Trinity Sewing Circle this afternoon at her home in Fulton avenue.

The Corticella club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Melick, 55 Church street, on Wednesday with eight members and four guests present. The time was spent in needle work and after the social hour a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Elery of Munie, Ind., Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. De France and Mrs. Wallace Melick were club guests.

Many a man is more worried about his friends than about his enemies. Even when they play poker, some fellows expect their friends to lend a hand.

He—"You have made a fool of me." She—"Well, if I didn't, some other girl would."

No man remains poor just because he is convinced that wealth doesn't bring happiness.

Even when we are thoroughly convinced that the past is dead it sometimes comes to life again.

Silic—"Would you marry for love or for money?" Cynicus—"Well, I think I should split the difference."

Miss Besse Kear entertained with a dinner party of pretty appointments on Wednesday evening at her home in Granville street. The table was arranged in red and white, a centerpiece of red carnations, massed with greenery and heart shaped place cards were attractively used. Covers were laid for eight guests. The event honored Miss Sadie Utevis, who left Thursday morning for Ft. Worth, Texas.

The members of the Art Embroidery club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. John Hohl in Maple avenue on Thursday afternoon. All the decorations were in red and white hearts and valentines being used with pretty effect. The luncheon table was arranged with red hearts and the table was centered with a basket filled with red flowers. The afternoon hours were devoted to needlework.

Miss Marie Kuster was the honor guest at an informal card party on Thursday evening when Miss Hazel Kirk entertained the members of the Kensington club and a few guests at her home in North Fourth street. The souvenirs were awarded to Miss Grace Egan and Miss Marie Kuster and Miss Egan graciously presented her trophy to the honor guest.

The decorations were in red and white in keeping with the approaching feast of St. Valentine.

The Phi Sigma Chi fraternity entertained with a delightful dance on Thursday evening in Assembly Hall. The hall was prettily arranged with black and orange, the fraternity colors, and many of the fraternity pennants. The dancing party was the last festivity to be given before the Lenten season begins.

The Hawkins orchestra furnished the dance program and at 10:30 a buffet luncheon was served in the balcony. The small reception room was prettily arranged with cushions and pennants and the dancing hours were from 8:30 to 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Scheidler and the following were members of the dancing party: Misses Amy Kuster, Alta Sherburne, Grace Jones, Margaret Moore, Clotilde Howard, Grace Doyle, Mary Simpson, Kathryn Musser, Grace Marvin Kerr, Lucille McEwen, Dorothy Kuster, Margaret Hayes, Elizabeth Claytor, Kathryn Sedgwick, and Adra Harrison.

An Old Love's Valentine

By T. C. HARBAUGH

Copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.

An old valentine! Three little love verses!

She merrily laughed as she penned them, I know,

And now as I read them my spirit rehearses

The joys and the shine of a sweet long ago.

The ribbons that tied it have years ago faded,

But still round a heart like tendrils they twine,

And Cupid looks on with his merry eyes shaded,

For well he remembers the old valentine.

Beautiful still, though some letters have vanished

Which the heart can supply, for love will not forget,

And out of the past which the present has banished

Comes a pair of bright eyes that can fascinate yet.

And over the page of my valentine cherished

Fall tresses as lovely as Fairy-land's gold.

In the storms of the years 'tis not this that hath perished,

For it links me anew to a sweet heart of old.

She stands at my side and her soft hand caresses

A cheek set aflame by the strength of her sway,

And I wait in a dream for the kiss she impresses

On a brow that shall feel it for ever and a day.

Aye, out of the shadows that wearily lengthen

And pillage life's vistas of half of their shine

Return the old loves that the spirit doth strengthen

With the half faded rimoes of the old valentine.

I wonder today if her memories ever,

Love gilded, cause cheeks, once rosy, to burn.

They told me she blushingly said it was "clever"

The big valentine I sent in return.

And if we should meet, as we may in life's gloaming,

Two sweethearts whose tresses doth rival the snow,

I'm sure she would smile as when Love went a-roaming

And sent me this valentine long, long ago.

I smooth out its creases with delicate fingers;

She'd help me, I know, could I summon her here,

For Time is a traitor though Memory lingers,

And a kiss on this faded old page would appear.

I won't her; I lost her; the soft flakes were falling,

And white in the wind stood the crest of the pine,

And, dreaming, I hear her, as long ago, calling

For the love that she sent with this old valentine.

I'll keep it to cherish so long as life's ever

Flows on with a song to the ultimate sea.

She still must remember, for dear is the giver

To the lover who talks to her love verses three,

And if she were here I am sure she would listen

With a smile as I read her each half faded line,

And maybe two eyes with affection would gladden

And sweethearts would meet o'er the old valentine.

There's No Corn That "Gets-It" Won't Get

No More Fading, Flingers, Salves and Corn Plasters. Try the New Way

Madam, For Those Corns That Make You Jump Out of Your Shoes, Try Wonderful "GETS-IT."

"Just think at the way that corn comes off." That's what you'll say when you try the wonderful "GETS-IT" on that corn you've tried so long to pry off your foot. It's easy to apply. "GETS-IT" is one of the three "and it's done" The corn begins to shrivel away, goes soft, and absolutely a few drops will do it. "GETS-IT" never makes toes red and raw. Corn plasters do it. The end of a cutting and gouging of corns, the end of sticky plasters that don't work anyhow, the end of salves that eat up your toes, no more "harness" or "insulin." Try "GETS-IT," the new, sure way. For corns and calluses.

"GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

GLOVER HOME BURNED FRIDAY IN PERRY TWP.

Jesse Glover's home, six miles north of Hanover in Perry township, was destroyed by fire about 9 o'clock Friday morning, causing a loss of not only the property worth $2,500 to $2,800, but also the household goods. Mr. and Mrs. Glover had gone to the home of a neighbor, but Mr. Glover's brother and his wife were in the house when the fire started from a defective flue. They succeeded in carrying Mrs. Jones an invalid to a point of safety, but the flames spread so rapidly that very little of the household furnishings was saved. Mr. Glover carried $900 insurance on the house and $300 on the contents.

CORPORATIONS ARE FLEECE BY SWINDLER

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Feb. 6.—Lorenzo B. Adams, arraigned before the United States commissioner today as a mail swindler, had, according to the charges of the postoffice inspectors, developed his art to such a degree that his victims were not individuals but corporations. He was accused of swindling the promoters of newly-formed stock companies out of $100,000 by selling them a worthless service whereby he promised to exploit and sell their securities. Adams denied the charges.

POLICE FIND AUTO STOLEN BY HOLDUP MAN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Feb. 6.—Police officers early today located the five passenger machine of Saloonist George Hood used last night by a daring robber, who held up five men in the saloon of William Brockman on North Fourth avenue, stealing $35 at the point of a revolver, shooting Philip Affholder, bartender, and a few minutes later taking between $18 and $20 from the cash register in the drug store of J. W. Richards, holding off Richards with a drawn gun.

Officers searched all night for the daring robber, described as a left handed man, aged about 25, dressed in a dark coat and cap, light trousers and having an eye with a blackened appearance. They failed to find any trace of him.

The man stole the Hood automobile from in front of Hood's saloon shortly before 8 o'clock.

A Vanished Ocean.

In the tertiary period the geographical configuration of the globe was steadily approaching that of the present day. The same holds true for the faunal aspect and the climate was verging on the glacial period. It was at this time the great equatorial ocean "Tethys" existed still, and there is evidence that East India and Africa, Australia and Asia, north Europe and North America were united by land connections. In the latter part of the period the ocean "Tethys" gave place to mountainous formations, such as the Alps, Himalayas and Carpathians, through the folding up of the crust of the sea. At the same time there were enormous outpourings of volcanic materials. Snakes and true birds advanced rapidly toward their modern position in this period, which was characterized also by the maximum expansion of mammals taking the place of the great saurians.—New York Sun.

Chicago Wheat.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Feb. 6.—Wheat prices ran up today in a general rush to buy because of possible crop damage from the cold wave. March 32 1/2 below zero was reported in parts of Nebraska. Sellers, however, became numerous and the market made a moderate bulge. Story told of much of the winter crop being damaged by the cold wave. Higher figures were reported from the West and additional gains followed.
Shorts in corn found the pit bare of offerings. Live competition with the wheat in the winter being the outlook for a sharp advance in the future. The report of the committee also would set forth the fact that it would be ascribable to the committee and justifiable by the committee's findings. If Governor Cox would make recommendations to the legislature that a law be enacted to prohibit the holding of two jobs by members of the legislature.

The report declares "that no member of the eighteenth general assembly has drawn money from the governor's contingent fund."

PROSECUTION ASKS FOR CONTINUANCE IN STANLEY CASE
(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Feb. 6.—When Norman Stanley of Wheeling, W. Va., was all ready to be arraigned in police court here today for the murder of Robert E. Mercer of Pittsburgh, the prosecution asked for and obtained a continuance to February 9. Stanley arrived here last night from Wheeling where he was arrested.

Mercer, employed as a timekeeper on construction work at the new city hall here, was murdered December 21. His body was found buried under the city hall Wednesday.

WANTED HERE

August Robinson, charged in a warrant with non-support of his six-months-old son, was arraigned before Mayor Bigbee Friday afternoon.
Robinson was arrested in Dayton Wednesday and held until Patrolman Hurlbaugh reached there. He was turned over to the officer, who brought him to Newark late Wednesday night. Patrolman Hurlbaugh was in Columbus Wednesday taking a drunk to the Columbus work house. He was reached by a telegram from Police Chief Sheridan ordering him to proceed to Dayton where Robinson was being held.

KRAMER PROBE TO SUBMIT REPORT TO LEGISLATURE
(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Feb. 6.—When the Kramer committee appointed to investigate whether any member of the lower house of the legislature have been drawing two salaries illegally reports to the house today, it will file a mass of testimony taken by the committee together with a statement that "the records disclose that there has scarcely been a legislature since the seventy-first that has not had some members drawing money from the public funds and at the same time their salaries as members. No recommendation will be made that any of the present members be asked to resign because of drawing two salaries, it was stated."

"The committee will recommend that the practice of holding positions under the state or any of its political sub-divisions, by members of the legislature, be discontinued in the future. The report of the committee also will set forth the fact that it would be ascribable to the committee and justifiable by the committee's findings. If Governor Cox would make recommendations to the legislature that a law be enacted to prohibit the holding of two jobs by members of the legislature."

FOREIGNERS IN DANGER; MARINES LANDED BY U. S.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 6.—Rioting and pillaging broke out in Cape Haitien yesterday to such an extent that commander Roswick of the gunboat Cashville landed 80 men to protect life and property of foreign residents.

Commander Roswick took action at the request of foreign consuls. Instructions to his landing force were to protect Americans, all foreigners and their property.

All Clogged Up? Here's Quick Relief

A Simple Remedy to Correct Constipation Before It Becomes Chronic.

Very few people go through life without some time or other being troubled with constipation. Thousands injure themselves by the use of strong cathartics, salts, mineral waters, pills and similar things. They have temporary value in some cases, it is true, but the good effect is soon lost, and the more one takes of them the less effective they become.

A physic or purgative is seldom necessary, and much better and more permanent results can be obtained by using a scientific remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not hide behind a high sounding name, but is what it is represented to be, a mild laxative medicine. It is so mild that thousands of mothers give it to tiny infants, and yet it is so compounded, and contains such definite ingredients that it will have equally good effect when used by a person suffering from the worst chronic constipation. In fact, among the greatest benefactors of Syrup Pepsin are elderly people who have suffered for years and found nothing to benefit them until they took Syrup Pepsin.

It is a fact that millions of families have Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house, homes like those of Mr. H. W. Fenstermaker, Siegfried, Pa. He says he has had wonderful results from the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, that, in fact, he has never found a remedy so good, and he is glad to recommend it. The special value of this grand laxative tonic is that it is suited to the needs of every member of the family. It is pleasant-tasting, mild and non-gripping. Unlike harsh physics, it works gradually and in a brief time the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to do their work naturally again, when all medicines can be dispensed with. You can obtain a bottle at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is usually bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

PARK NATIONAL ASKS RECEIVER FOR BRICK CO.

In a suit instituted in common pleas court Friday by Attorneys Flory & Flory, the Park National bank, as plaintiff, petitions appointment of a receiver for the Hanover Pressed Brick company, alleging that the company is heavily indebted.

It is alleged that the Columbus Savings & Trust company holds a deed of trust conveying much of the company's equipment, for the issue of $50,000 worth of bonds, $49,000 of which have been issued and disposed of. The company was organized with a capitalization of $130,000, says the petition.

Granville

Herbert Williams of Chicago, president of the Illinois Bridge company, was a Granville visitor Thursday.

The winter picnic club elected the following officers at their annual business meeting: President, Mrs. Fred Buxton and Miss Martha Geach was selected as vice president.

Miss Minnie Penney is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Curtis announce the birth of a girl baby, Wednesday.

Prof. C. D. Coons left Thursday for Dayton where he will spend a few days during the semester recess of Denison.

The Denison Glee club left Thursday for a tour of Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania. The club will return Wednesday afternoon.

A large number of Denison students took advantage of the semester recess to return to their homes and as a result there are very few students in Granville. After the victory over Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware last Wednesday evening a celebration was indulged in by the students. A crowd of 100 assembled and proceeded to wake up the town. A bonfire was made on the campus of Shephardson college and after a few speeches a tour of the faculty homes was made. President Chamberlain was awakened from his slumbers and forced to entertain the assemblage. He invited the celebrators into his house and treated them to some fine apples he had just received and after he had made a brief speech the departure was made by the midnight carousers. Similar raids were made on the homes of Prof. Williams and Prof. Coons, where speeches were listened to.

SIDNEY VOTES TO RETAIN ITS THIRST PARLORS

(Associated Press Telegram) Sidney, Feb. 6.—Sidney remained in the liquor column yesterday when the vote under the Beal law resulted in a wet victory by a majority of 95.

The campaign started in November and has been bitterly fought from start to finish. The city voted wet two years ago by a majority of 56 votes.

The vote was: Wets, 1062; dry, 967.

CONGRESS CONSIDERS PANAMA TOLL BILL

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Feb. 6.—Repeal of the toll exemptions provision of the Panama canal law was before congress today as an administration measure backed by President Wilson.

A message to congress probably delivered in person by the President, is expected as soon as conferences develop the administration's course of action. Repeal of the free passage section will dispose of Great Britain's protest that it is in violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

OHIO WILL POINT WAY TO PROGRESS

BY MRS. O. H. P. BELMONT.

"That the year 1914 has been chosen for a suffrage campaign in Ohio augurs well for the three states to the east in which campaigns are also pending—New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania—but which will not vote on the question until the autumn of 1915.

"Should Ohio declare a victory at the polls this year, its influence upon these three eastern states will be beyond calculation. As the winning of California in 1910 was the indirect means of carrying Oregon, Arizona and Kansas in 1911, so I believe that Ohio's success next fall will result in complete victory for New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania in 1915.

"That the women of Ohio will win this year is generally accepted as a foregone conclusion, because it is impossible to believe that the voters having had the education of the 1912 campaign, and famous the world over for their wisdom, equity and justice, can refuse in these progressive times to extend their helpmate's political freedom upon which they place so high a value for themselves, and the withdrawal of which they regard as the deepest disgrace and greatest indignity within the power of the state to impose.

"This campaign offers Ohio men a chance to open the way of progress in that region just as their forefathers pierced the great forests and built the highways which firmly established the Buckeye state as a gateway for the hampered advance of civilization, thus forging a connecting link between the circumscribed east and the then undreamed-of possibilities of the unlimited west. By taking advantage of the opportunity now presented and conferring the franchise upon women, the present generation of Ohio men will prove themselves worthy descendants of those far-seeing pioneers who opened the way in a new state for the future development of the whole nation.

"We women of the east, realizing the immense importance of winning Ohio, refuse to believe that its men will prove unequal to their opportunity. We do not want to point to the great Buckeye state as the 'missing link' in the chain of progress in this enlightened twentieth century.

"Inasmuch as the Star of Empire has apparently reversed its course, having reached Illinois on its eastward way, we look to the men of Ohio to guide it onward a little further, that the light of political equality may be shed not only on their state, but upon the three eastern states, where industrial burdens press with ever-increasing severity on women and children who are denied the protection of the ballot deemed so necessary for the men who work by their side."

The responsibility rests with Ohio. We do not believe it will fail us.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 6.—Beginning today no woman employed in industrial day no woman employed in industrial occupations shall receive less than $8.25 per week for 54 working hours. The state welfare commission has so ruled, and in making this decision the commission says: "No self-respecting woman in Oregon can support herself decently on less than that wage."

It is Figures That Count. 249,000 Ohio men voted for equal suffrage in 1912. 250,000 Ohio women have endorsed woman suffrage.

CHARGES RAILROAD DELAYED LIVE STOCK SHIPMENT

Because, he alleges, the T. and O. C. railway company delayed transit of a quantity of live stock from Alexandria to Pittsburgh until the stock's weight was reduced and six hogs died, Joseph H. Cornell wants $22,220 damages from the company. His petition was filed in common pleas court Friday by his counsel. He says the delayed shipment included 162 hogs, 2 sheep and 9 calves.

THE AGED IRISH EXILE.

"Tis a great land, mavourneen, this land of my seeking. Where a man can be all he dreamed he might be. But I'm getting old, lass, and when night comes a-sneaking My heart takes to roving 'way over the sea. I see the thatched roof and the peat fire burning. The truth in your eyes and the promise there, too— The promise of love, with its infinite learning. If I'd stayed home, mavourneen, I might have had you.

But the call of the world to the keen ear Is the siren's own song when the young blood is hot. Faith, I've fought a good fight and I've friends by the plenty. And there's never a man that can say I have not. But at dusk when the thoughts of the day are disbanding Like soldiers of war when the fighting is through, Then I long for the peace that is past understanding That might have been mine, lass, in Erin with you.

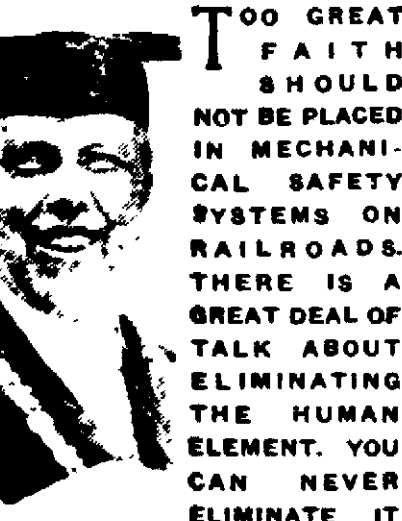

Sure, there's women have kissed me, with soft arms entwining. But there's none that gave the love that uplifts and endures. And I might have seen you, with your dear face all shining. A-crooning to children—my children and yours. And children of theirs might come slyly a-peeking. By tales of the banshee be lured to my knee. 'Tis a great land, this land that my wild feet came seeking. But, oh, my aushla, 'tis home I would be! —Mabel Stevens Freer.

CHURCH ARISTOCRATIC.

The wage earner has small voice in the matter. The modern church is seldom organized so as to reach him. He has dropped the church—at least, the Protestant churches—or the churches have dropped him. The churches are dying of dry rot, yet within them few seem to realize why. That cause largely lies in the conservative determination to insist on various credal platforms, and once this policy is adopted the exodus of the progressive part of the church membership is only a question of time. The church does not represent today the whole people as once it did. Disheartened by its proved immobility, its would be reformers have left it of have been driven forth from it. Its 'standpatters' remain within it, rule its deliberations and direct its policy. In a democratic age and country the American churches are aristocratic.—Dr. William S. Rainsford, Former Pastor of St. George's Episcopal Church, New York City.

Human Element Required to Eliminate Railroad Accidents

By Dr. ARTHUR T. HADLEY,
President of Yale University

TOO GREAT FAITH SHOULD NOT BE PLACED IN MECHANICAL SAFETY SYSTEMS ON RAILROADS. THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF TALK ABOUT ELIMINATING THE HUMAN ELEMENT. YOU CAN NEVER ELIMINATE IT WITHOUT REDUCING MEN TO MERE AUTOMATONS. THE AIM OF RAILROADS SHOULD BE TO MAKE THEIR EMPLOYEES THE MASTERS, NOT THE SERVANTS, OF THE MECHANICAL FORCES UNDER THEIR CONTROL.

The third-class railway fares of India are less than a farthing a mile.

Filipinos Are Inclined to Be Friendly to the United States

By MANUEL L. QUEZON, Resident Commissioner From the Philippines in Congress

THE policy of President Wilson, as outlined in his message delivered to the Filipino people by Governor General Harrison, has met with the enthusiastic approval of the people of the islands, especially the step giving the natives control of both branches of the Philippine legislature. NO WHOLESALE REMOVAL OR ANY POLITICAL APPOINTMENT OF AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAS BEEN MADE. The few changes among the chiefs of bureaus have been made in furtherance of the policy of the present administration in the islands.

The "Filipinization" of the service long has been promised to the Filipinos by the former administration, and GOVERNOR HARRISON IS JUST REDEEMING THAT PLEDGE. The civil service regulations enacted by the former administration are being strictly adhered to.

THE EFFECT OF THE NEW POLICY ON BUSINESS IN SO FAR AS BUSINESS CAN BE AFFECTED BY A GOVERNMENTAL POLICY HAS BEEN FOR THE GOOD. ONE IMMEDIATE RESULT HAS BEEN THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE FILIPINOS AND THE AMERICANS SO THAT NOW THERE IS CO-OPERATION AMONG THEM NOT ONLY IN GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS BUT IN BUSINESS ALSO.

Every cloud has a silver lining, and away down in her heart every married woman feels that she might have done worse.

These Are the Rules of the Advocate Booklovers' Contest

Any person may compete in this contest who lives either in Licking, Delaware, Knox, Coshocton, Muskingum, Perry, Fairfield or Franklin counties, Ohio, except employees of the Newark Advocate or members of their families.

Answers to the picture must be written upon the coupon blank which will be printed every day with each picture during the seventy publication days the contest will last. Both picture and blank must be clipped from the paper, and the blank properly filled in with the name of the book and the author's name, together with the name and address of the contestant written clearly and plainly in the space provided. Not more than one person's name may be written on any coupon.

Each picture will represent the title of only one book, but there may be some pictures that suggest the titles of several books. For the benefit of contestants, and to allow for this variety of solution, any contestant may give as many as five answers to any picture, at will; but not more than one solution may be written on any coupon. If the contestant gives two answers as likely to include the correct one, two coupons must be used; if three answers, three coupons, and so on.

In each instance, whether the contestant gives one answer or five answers to any picture, both the picture and coupon must be used for each of the answers; and not more than five answers to any picture will be permitted.

If any one of the five answers that may be given to any picture is correct, the contestant will be credited for that correct solution and will not have the incorrect ones counted against his or her chances.

Prizes will be awarded to every contestant, by the Contest Judges, who sends in the largest number of correct answers upon the smallest number of coupons. Thus, if a contestant gives the correct answers to 70 of the pictures and uses only 70 coupons, that contestant will rate higher in the prize awards than one who uses 140 coupons or any higher number up to 350 for supplying the 70 correct answers.

If two or more persons, supplying the same number of correct answers, have used the same number of coupons for their answers, the highest rating will be given to those whose answers are most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the judges.

No contestant will be allowed to submit more than one set of answers, which must include not less than 70 or more than 350 coupons, with accompanying pictures.

Positively no solution may be sent in to the Contest Editor until every one of the seventy pictures has been printed. Answers in complete sets, as just specified above, will then be received in this office, and should be addressed to "Contest Editor," Booklovers' Contest, Advocate, Newark, Ohio. The awards will be made strictly according to the correctness of each set of answers, and the correctness shall be determined by the Finding List, the catalogue issued by us as governing the Booklovers' Contest. This catalogue can be obtained from the Advocate office for 25c (27 cents if by mail), and will include in its 5000 titles every one used in the contest. Awards will be announced in this newspaper after the close of the contest.

It is not absolutely necessary to send in solutions on blanks clipped from the Advocate, as duplicate pictures may be drawn by the contestant, if he or she so desires, or duplicate blanks may be obtained at the office of the Newark (Ohio) Advocate.

THREE DEATHS IN TWO WEEKS IN ONE FAMILY

Mrs. Kate Parkinson Answers Call After Being an Invalid for Several Years.

The third death in the Parkinson family within less than two weeks was recorded last Thursday with the death of Mrs. Kate Parkinson, in her home, 20 Pataskala street. A fourth member of the family is said to be dangerously ill in her home in Mountville, W. Va.

Mrs. Ida Woodcock was the first member of the family to die within the past two weeks. Mrs. William Parkinson, a sister-in-law, was taken ill at the funeral and died here a few days later.

Mrs. Kate Parkinson died as a result of illness with Bright's disease and complications. She was 76 years of age, and was born in Virginia, June 24, 1838, being the daughter of Daniel and Catherine Stickle who immigrated to this country in 1833, moving to Somerset, O., in 1840. She came to Newark in 1862 and was married to William M. Parkinson here, Oct. 30, 1877. Mr. Parkinson died in 1897.

ASSEMBLY PROGRESS

(Continued from Page One.) the operation of the liquor license law. The defeat of the bill yesterday was considered a victory for the "drys." The bill will be acted upon this afternoon, it was said.

Senator Mooney of Auglaize county, chairman of the senate finance committee led an unsuccessful fight in the senate today to prevent the release by the state of the claim for $41,000 judgment for interest against the defunct Columbus Savings & Trust company, the senate by a vote of 18 to 9 decided to not enforce the claim.

The release of the state's claim was contained in the Orrison bill which already had passed the house. The senate also passed the Deaton house bill authorizing county commissioners to transfer moneys from other funds to the blind relief fund before March 1, in order to pay claims of blind persons. The Leist house bill providing an appropriation of $85,000 with which to aid weak school districts, was passed.

Lieutenant Governor Greenlund was handed a bouquet in the form of a resolution authorizing the painting of his picture to cost not more than $500 and to be hung on the walls of the senate chamber. Senator Howard, Republican, presented an amendment expressing appreciation of the courtesy shown by Mr. Greenlund in presiding over the senate.

Other measures passed by the senate were the Hastings house bill, amending the Snyder "emergency flood relief" law passed at the last session to apply to July floods in Noble county, and the Kilpatrick house bill, providing for the appointment of a member of the state tax commission before next Monday to succeed Chairman Pabst, whose term expires then.

The last measure allows the appointment of a Democrat by Governor Cox to remain in office for six years. Without the bill, Mr. Pabst would have kept office until next year as a "hang-over" member of the tax commission, and the appointment of a Democrat then would depend on whether a Democratic governor is elected next fall.

COUGH TWO YEARS OLD

Yields to Vinol. Read Why. Strong vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitally low that colds and coughs get a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your run down condition again?

Mrs. D. A. McGee of Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a chronic cold and cough which kept me awake nights for two years and I felt tired all the time. Vinol cured my cough and I feel stronger in every way."

The reason Vinol is so effective in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood building iron added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.

You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say. Frank D. Hall, Druggist, Newark, N. J.

P. S.—For itching, burning skin use our Saxe Salve. We guarantee it.

RUSK BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

J. W. Rusk, charged with stealing chickens from Earnest Lieber, 195 Moul street, Friday morning waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury with bail fixed at $500 which he was not able to give. The chickens were said to have been stolen Wednesday evening and the three chickens that he had when captured were identified by Mrs. Lieber and her son.

LICKING CO.

(Continued from Page One.) Spanish press commented freely on the Mexican situation today. Several of the leading newspapers of the capital accused the United States government of "fomenting anarchy."

MILLIONAIRE MUST WORK.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 6.—His immense income tied up by three years of revolutions, Alberto Terrazas, of the family whose name in Mexico is a synonym for great wealth, has been compelled to seek means of livelihood. This information is as to the Rio Grande border as similar news affecting a Rockefeller or a Vanderbilt would be in the United States became known here today with his departure for Pasadena, Calif. He was accompanied by his family but not the usual retinue of servants.

Near Pasadena, Terrazas expects to buy or lease a small farm where he can make a modest living. He is one of those who sees no prospect of peace in his native lands and until tranquility is restored the income of the vast Terrazas family fortune, estimated at $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 in American gold will be tied up. Even in the event of peace it will be lost for the rebels have declared it confiscated.

The Courts

Suit for Money. Suit was filed in common pleas court Thursday. William M. Moore, vs. Mary E. Moore, et al., for foreclosure of a mortgage deed securing payment of an alleged promissory note for $2,600 alleged to have been issued Dec. 1, 1911.

Marriage License. Wade H. Dwyer, farmer, Jersey, and Winifred E. Forrell, 22, Pataskala, Rev. T. J. Pison to officiate.

George F. Myers, 25, grocer, Hebron, and Dorcas Morris, 21, telephone operator, to be married.

Marriage License. Leon R. Gerard, farmer, Columbus, and Alice E. Zellers, 20, Newark, Magistrate M. Jones to officiate.

Harry G. Rogers, treasurer of theater, Newark, and Marie L. Brennan, 22, Newark.

Married by Magistrate. Magistrate M. Jones, Thursday afternoon officiated at the marriage of Leon R. Gerard of Columbus and Miss Alice E. Zellers of Newark.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of court clerk, and the couple left immediately afterward for Mt. Vernon.

Boys' Bodies. Never thinking about being buried, a boy, 14, who was a wonder, can get a hat to fit him.

O'SHAUGHNESSY'S BOND IS $1500

Leo O'Shaughnessy, charged with assault upon and robbery of Samuel Summers on the night of January 24, waived examination when arraigned Friday morning before Mayor Bigbee, and was bound over to the grand jury with a bond fixed at $1,500, which he failed to give.

It is alleged that O'Shaughnessy robbed Summers of $44.50. After the assault O'Shaughnessy went to Portsmouth, where he was arrested on a charge of being drunk. Police Chief Sheridan went to Portsmouth Saturday and returned with the prisoner.

Decree Is Granted. Judge T. B. Fulton has granted a decree of divorce to Marie L. Brennan from Harold F. Brennan. The suit was not contested. No alimony was allowed and custody of their one child is given to the defendant. Attorney J. W. Horner represented the plaintiff.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

It's Granmother's recipe to bring back color, thickness and lustre—Everybody is using it again.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advanced age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. SAMPSON HELD UNDER $600 BOND

J. W. Sampson, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, waived examination Friday morning before Mayor Bigbee and was bound over to the grand jury, with bond fixed at $600—$300 for each offense. It is alleged that he deposited a valueless check for $100 1/2 Edward Schaller and obtained $10 on the same. It is also alleged that he deposited a check at the Star Hotel for $50 and obtained $20. Both checks were on the First National Bank of Denver, Colo. The bank was notified and replied that Sampson had no funds on deposit. Sampson failed to produce or arrange for bond.
